Via New and Erie R. R.

N. Y. Office, 193 Broadway.

SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west and south-west. We offer the following advantages:— From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays expected) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward.

Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which

Quicker Time

can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at al principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, JR., Agent, First door east of Hyatt House.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford" As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their bests interests.

During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The Sandusky Register of the 30th says the grape picking season on Kelley Island is now at its busiest point. The Isabella is fully ripe—too ripe to be pleasant for the table, and is being gathered for wine. The Catawba is also ripe, but does not get the sickish flavor of the Isabella. The crop on the island is estimated at one thousand tons.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blount, aged sixty-eight, was married at Kingston, N. C., last week, to A. V. Bulger, aged twenty-five. The fair widow had $70,000 to counteract the "summers" which have passed over her head.

A little boy, only three years old, son of William Norris, was burned to death on Friday evening in Detroit, by his clothes taking fire from a candle with which he was playing, during the temporary absence of his mother.

The jewelry store of Hawley & Co., London, was recently robbed of thirty thousand dollars worth of goods, by a boy in their employ, who was traced to Paris, where he was arrested, and all the stolen property recovered.

On the first of November about three inches of snow fell in St. Jo, (Mo.) but melted away very rapidly. More rain fell than for many months past.

The number of deaths from scarlet fever in Philadelphia reached twenty-two during the last week. This is a great increase, and the desease appears almost to have assumed the form of epidemic.

The New York World is now printed on a Hoe ten cylinder press, bought new for $30,000. They retain also their six cylinder, late in use.

The storm of the latter part of last week, extended over a great portion of the country, and did a considerable amount of damage. On the eastern slopes of the Alleghanies in western Maryland, and Virginia, an immense body of water fell, and all the streams flowing into the Potomac were much swollen. The rise in that river was almost unprecedented, though the damage resulting is not so great as might be expected. On the east end of Long Island the gale was very severe, demolishing houses, outbuildings, fences, chimneys, trees, &c.

The passport system is entirely abolished by royal ordinance in Sweden; henceforth no such document will be required either in entering the country or in departing from it. Sweden is the first continental country to abolish the vexatious system by a law.

Thomas Bates, a Utica (N. Y.) Wide Awake, returning with the company from an excursion to Rome, last week Thursday evening, got into a dispute with the conductor about his fare, and was put off the cars. Another train coming on the other track from an opposite direction, a moment after, struck him and injured him so that he probably died soon after.

A company has been formed for the purpose of pearl fishing in the Gulf of California. At the lower end of the bay pearls of great value are found in the shallow beds.

Mr. Horace Blinn, one of the most respected citizens of Terre Haute, Ind., was instantly killed on Monday night, in the following manner: Mr. Blinn, in company with others, had been on a hunting excursion in Sullivan county, and while riding in a wagon near Meron, he was loading his gun, which was by some means prematurely discharged, the ball entering Mr. Blinn's head, literally blowing out his brains.

A man in Cincinnati has just discovered that he has been paying for the last fifteen years another man's taxes. He has paid about $1,000, and now asks the court to refund principal and interest. The court probably cannot allow the interest, but the amount will doubtless be paid over to the gentleman, and then entered to the owner's account as back taxes.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has received 500 invitations for the winter's lecturing tour. He has as yet accepted but twenty-five.

NEWSPAPERS IN CHARLESTON.—The Charleston Mercury gives the history of that paper for thirty-five years—during which time it refers to the fate of its editors, after this fashion: "The first ruined—the second barely earned a narrow subsistence—the third injured, but sold out in time—the fourth died a ruined man, and the fifth is ourselves, of whom we shall say nothing."

The Dubuque Herald says that, on the 2d of November, a man in that town succeeded in the beastly feat of drinking forty-five glasses of lager and twenty glasses of whisky.

SNOW.—They have already had fine sleighing in Vermont, snow having fallen there to the depth of several inches. They have also been visited by a snow storm in Arkansas.

MISSOURI ELECTION.—The returns which we publish this morning, and which we have endeavored to make as accurate as possible, leave the vote of Missouri in some doubt, as between Douglas and Bell. So far Bell has 34,829; Douglas 34,176; Breckinridge 14,946; Lincoln 13,718.—Were it not for a diversion of a portion of the democratic vote in favor of the candidate of the disunionists, there would be no doubt about the result; for in the fifty odd counties yet to be heard from, the democratic party had in August a large majority. But a division of that vote, though only a limited portion of it should be given to Breckinridge, may decide the contest in favor of Mr Bell. With a few exceptions, all the strongholds of what may be called the Bell party have been heard from, and additional returns to day may give the majority to Mr. Douglas. Breckinridge is getting a little ahead of Douglas.—St. Louis Republican, Nov. 10

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.

MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, but in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Buble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested: and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

Springfield, Mass.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, - - $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

SEWING MACHINES!

SINGER'S Shuttle Machine, with all the latest improvements, may be obtained at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Addy, corner of Franklin and Wall sts, near the Hyat House. This machine is warranted to be superior to any other in market, for all kinds of family sewing. Mrs. A., from her thorough acquaintance with this and the other kinds in use, feels entire confidence in recommending this to her friends and the public, as possessing superior advantages, as she will be ready to demonstrate to the satisfaction of those who may favor her with a call. Persons desirous of purchasing, are invited to call and examine for themselves. As a further inducement, Mrs. A. offers gratuitous instruction in the use of the machine to those who purchase of her; all necessary instruction to enable a person of ordinary capacity to operate the machine successfully can be given in the short space of one hour. Price, from $45, $55 up to $100, according to size. Hemmers, Gauges and Needles kept with the machine. MRS. WM. ADDY.

New and Fashionable FRENCH MILLINERY.

MISS REYNOLDS would respectfully inform the ladies of Janesville and its vicinity that she is now prepared to show an extensive and elegant stock of

of the most modern styles, and suited to the fall trade. Amongst her superb assortment may be found a large variety of French and American Flowers, new French and American Ribbons, Rusches, &c., together with the latest designs of Pattern Hats, such as are now exhibited in the most extensive millinery establishments in New York, Boston and other eastern cities. Miss Reynolds respectfully invites the attention of the ladies to her stock of Bonnets, consisting of Plain, Black and Spotted Cobings, Pedals, Tuscan, &c. Ladies elegant Promenade and riding Hats, Cloth and Felt ditto, Zouaves, &c.

Having constantly on hand a full stock of Bonnet Materials of every description, she is enabled to execute any orders she may be favored with, and will guarantee to suit the taste of the most fastidious. Having purchased her goods of the importer, exclusively for cash, she is enabled to sell for less than any similar establishment in this city.

Old hats trimmed, pressed and altered to the newest style.

Dresses Cut and Made to Order.—The dress making department is under her own immediate supervision, and having long experience in the trade she is confident of giving satisfaction to all who may favor her with their patronage. MISS REYNOLDS,

DAILY GAZETTE.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The Sandusky Register of the 30th says the grape picking season on Kelley Island is now at its busiest point. The Isabella is fully ripe—too ripe to be pleasant for the table, and is being gathered for wine. The Catawba is also ripe, but does not get the sickish flavor of the Isabella. The crop on the island is estimated at one thousand tons.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blount, aged sixty-eight, was married at Kingston, N. C., last week, to A. V. Bulger, aged twenty-five. The fair widow had $70,000 to counteract the "summers" which have passed over her head.

A little boy, only three years old, son of William Norris, was burned to death on Friday evening in Detroit, by his clothes taking fire from a candle with which he was playing, during the temporary absence of his mother.

The jewelry store of Hawley & Co., London, was recently robbed of thirty thousand dollars worth of goods, by a boy in their employ, who was traced to Paris, where he was arrested, and all the stolen property recovered.

On the first of November about three inches of snow fell in St. Jo, (Mo.) but melted away very rapidly. More rain fell than for many months past.

The number of deaths from scarlet fever in Philadelphia reached twenty-two during the last week. This is a great increase, and the desease appears almost to have assumed the form of epidemic.

The New York World is now printed on a Hoe ten cylinder press, bought new for $30,000. They retain also their six cylinder, late in use.

The storm of the latter part of last week, extended over a great portion of the country, and did a considerable amount of damage. On the eastern slopes of the Alleghanies in western Maryland, and Virginia, an immense body of water fell, and all the streams flowing into the Potomac were much swollen. The rise in that river was almost unprecedented, though the damage resulting is not so great as might be expected. On the east end of Long Island the gale was very severe, demolishing houses, outbuildings, fences, chimneys, trees, &c.

The passport system is entirely abolished by royal ordinance in Sweden; henceforth no such document will be required either in entering the country or in departing from it. Sweden is the first continental country to abolish the vexatious system by a law.

Thomas Bates, a Utica (N. Y.) Wide Awake, returning with the company from an excursion to Rome, last week Thursday evening, got into a dispute with the conductor about his fare, and was put off the cars. Another train coming on the other track from an opposite direction, a moment after, struck him and injured him so that he probably died soon after.

A company has been formed for the purpose of pearl fishing in the Gulf of California. At the lower end of the bay pearls of great value are found in the shallow beds.

Mr. Horace Blinn, one of the most respected citizens of Terre Haute, Ind., was instantly killed on Monday night, in the following manner: Mr. Blinn, in company with others, had been on a hunting excursion in Sullivan county, and while riding in a wagon near Meron, he was loading his gun, which was by some means prematurely discharged, the ball entering Mr. Blinn's head, literally blowing out his brains.

A man in Cincinnati has just discovered that he has been paying for the last fifteen years another man's taxes. He has paid about $1,000, and now asks the court to refund principal and interest. The court probably cannot allow the interest, but the amount will doubtless be paid over to the gentleman, and then entered to the owner's account as back taxes.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has received 500 invitations for the winter's lecturing tour. He has as yet accepted but twenty-five.

NEWSPAPERS IN CHARLESTON.—The Charleston Mercury gives the history of that paper for thirty-five years—during which time it refers to the fate of its editors, after this fashion: "The first ruined—the second barely earned a narrow subsistence—the third injured, but sold out in time—the fourth died a ruined man, and the fifth is ourselves, of whom we shall say nothing."

The Dubuque Herald says that, on the 2d of November, a man in that town succeeded in the beastly feat of drinking forty-five glasses of lager and twenty glasses of whisky.

SNOW.—They have already had fine sleighing in Vermont, snow having fallen there to the depth of several inches. They have also been visited by a snow storm in Arkansas.

MISSOURI ELECTION.—The returns which we publish this morning, and which we have endeavored to make as accurate as possible, leave the vote of Missouri in some doubt, as between Douglas and Bell. So far Bell has 34,829; Douglas 34,176; Breckinridge 14,946; Lincoln 13,718.—Were it not for a diversion of a portion of the democratic vote in favor of the candidate of the disunionists, there would be no doubt about the result; for in the fifty odd counties yet to be heard from, the democratic party had in August a large majority. But a division of that vote, though only a limited portion of it should be given to Breckinridge, may decide the contest in favor of Mr. Bell. With a few exceptions, all the strongholds of what may be called the Bell party have been heard from, and additional returns to-day may give the majority to Mr. Douglas. Breckinridge is getting a little ahead of Douglas.—St. Louis Republican, Nov. 10

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.

Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.

Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west and south-west. We offer the following advantages:—From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays excepted) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward.
Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which

can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at all principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted.
SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, JR., Agent,

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.
The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The Sandusky Register of the 30th says the grape picking season on Kelley Island is now at its busiest point. The Isabella is fully ripe—too ripe to be pleasant for the table, and is being gathered for wine. The Catawba is also ripe, but does not get the sickish flavor of the Isabella. The crop on the island is estimated at one thousand tons.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blount, aged sixty-eight, was married at Kingston, N. C., last week, to A. V. Balger, aged twenty-five. The fair widow had $70,000 to counteract the "summers" which have passed over her head.

A little boy, only three years old, son of William Norris, was burned to death on Friday evening in Detroit, by his clothes taking fire from a candle with which he was playing, during the temporary absence of his mother.

The jewelry store of Hawley & Co., London, was recently robbed of thirty thousand dollars worth of goods, by a boy in their employ, who was traced to Paris, where he was arrested, and all the stolen property recovered.

On the first of November about three inches of snow fell in St. Jo, (Mo.) but melted away very rapidly. More rain fell than for many months past.

The number of deaths from scarlet fever in Philadelphia reached twenty-two during the last week. This is a great increase, and the desease appears almost to have assumed the form of epidemic.

The New York World is now printed on a Hoe ten cylinder press, bought new for $30,000. They retain also their six cylinder, late in use.

The storm of the latter part of last week, extended over a great portion of the country, and did a considerable amount of damage. On the eastern slopes of the Alleghanies in western Maryland, and Virginia, an immense body of water fell, and all the streams flowing into the Potomac were much swollen. The rise in that river was almost unprecedented, though the damage resulting is not so great as might be expected. On the east end of Long Island the gale was very severe, demolishing houses, outbuildings, fences, chimneys, trees, &c.

The passport system is entirely abolished by royal ordinance in Sweden; henceforth no such document will be required either in entering the country or in departing from it. Sweden is the first continental country to abolish the vexatious system by a law.

Thomas Bates, a Utica (N. Y.) Wide Awake, returning with the company from an excursion to Rome, last week Thursday evening, got into a dispute with the conductor about his fare, and was put off the cars. Another train coming on the other track from an opposite direction, a moment after, struck him and injured him so that he probably died soon after.

A company has been formed for the purpose of pearl fishing in the Gulf of California. At the lower end of the bay pearls of great value are found in the shallow beds.

Mr. Horace Blinn, one of the most respected citizens of Terre Haute, Ind., was instantly killed on Monday night, in the following manner: Mr. Blinn, in company with others, had been on a hunting excursion in Sullivan county, and while riding in a wagon near Meron, he was loading his gun, which was by some means prematurely discharged, the ball entering Mr. Blinn's head, literally blowing out his brains.

A man in Cincinnati has just discovered that he has been paying for the last fifteen years another man's taxes. He has paid about $1,000, and now asks the court to refund principal and interest. The court probably cannot allow the interest, but the amount will doubtless be paid over to the gentleman, and then entered to the owner's account as back taxes.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has received 500 invitations for the winter's lecturing tour. He has as yet accepted but twenty-five.

NEWSPAPERS IN CHARLESTON.—The Charleston Mercury gives the history of that paper for thirty-five years—during which time it refers to the fate of its editors, after this fashion: "The first ruined—the second barely earned a narrow subsistence—the third injured, but sold out in time—the fourth died a ruined man, and the fifth is ourselves, of whom we shall say nothing."

The Dubuque Herald says that, on the 2d of November, a man in that town succeeded in the beastly feat of drinking forty-five glasses of lager and twenty glasses of whisky.

SNOW.—They have already had fine sleighing in Vermont, snow having fallen there to the depth of several inches. They have also been visited by a snow storm in Arkansas.

MISSOURI ELECTION.—The returns which we publish this morning, and which we have endeavored to make as accurate as possible, leave the vote of Missouri in some doubt, as between Douglas and Bell. So far Bell has 34,829; Douglas 34,176; Breckinridge 14,946; Lincoln 13,718.—Were it not for a diversion of a portion of the democratic vote in favor of the candidate of the disunionists, there would be no doubt about the result; for in the fifty odd counties yet to be heard from, the democratic party had in August a large majority. But a division of that vote, though only a limited portion of it should be given to Breckinridge, may decide the contest in favor of Mr Bell. With a few exceptions, all the strongholds of what may be called the Bell party have been heard from, and additional returns to-day may give the majority to Mr. Douglas. Breckinridge is getting a little ahead of Douglas.—St. Louis Republican, Nov. 10

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid
QUARRY OF FREESTONE,
which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,
A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,
He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated
Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,
on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of
ATHENS MARBLE
(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.
He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are impershable when exposed to the action of air and frost.
He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city, or on board of the cars.
He is prepared to furnish
Cut Stone
of every description,
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Rubble and Coursing
stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.
In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Tuesday Evening, Nov'r. 13, 1860.

Official Paper of the City.

Are there Traitors at Washington?

Since the disunion movements in South Carolina and Georgia have assumed a semi-serious aspect, the natural inquiry of the public is turned to the President, to discover, if possible, whether he and his cabinet are in complicity with the traitors who are now attempting to raise a rebellion to dissolve the Union.

So far as Mr. Buchanan is concerned nothing is absolutely known. The Constitution, his organ, has been indulging, of late, in articles asserting the right of a State to secede from the Union, but it says it speaks for itself, and not the President. This does, apparently, clear him from responsibility for those articles; but as the paper is sustained almost wholly by official patronage, it is evident that it does not fear its withdrawal on account of the promulgation of such opinions. We may, therefore, conclude that he is not very much opposed to the doctrines of his organ.

It has also been remarked that the President has taken no precautions for the safety of the forts and arsenals in the South. They are so poorly manned with soldiers that any one of them might be taken into the possession of the disunionists. Fort Moultrie, at Charleston, is said to be entirely at the mercy of the traitors, who have so long threatened the public peace in that locality.

The President is at this time close-mouthed upon a subject which occupies the attention of the nation. He has no word in private, or in public through proclamations, or by the aid of his confidential newspaper organs. They are all dumb, so far as speaking for him is concerned, while their own private influence is given to the disunionists. Such a position as this, on the part of the head of the nation, at a time when his influence and his acts are demanded to suppress disloyalty to the country is giving uneasiness to the friends of the Union.

If the President occupies an equivocal position, it is not so with his Secretary of the Treasury. Before the election he was in New York consorting with enemies of the country, to get up a financial panic, to aid the disunionists in alarming the country. While there he did not hesitate to express his sympathy with the traitors who were conspiring to dissolve the union.

Secretary Cobb has control of the national treasury, and holds his office at the will of the President. His plots and his private harangues must be known to the President, and yet he either does not dare to remove him from his responsible, and if an enemy, most dangerous position in the government, or else the head of the nation, is with him in sentiment in his treasonable design. It is clear that we have not a Jackson at the helm of government at this time, for he would have instantly and publicly thrown the weight of his great influence against the traitors. No cabinet officer of his would have remained a moment in office who refused to clear his skirts of the taint of disunion.

From all that has transpired, so far, it may be fairly suspected that we have traitors at Washington, and that the President of the nation may be one of them.

IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT IN VIRGINIA.—In answer to Mr. Wise's disunion propositions, a Wheeling paper says that if eastern Virginia goes out of the Union, western Virginia will not, but will remain in the Union as a free state. There are indications that the conflict, long preparing, between the eastern and western sections of Virginia on the slavery question, will develope itself rapidly and powerfully from this time. There is in western Virginia a deeply seated jealousy and distrust of the eastern section. The east is the slaveholding and slave breeding section—the west is comparatively free. The east monopolizes most of the state and federal offices, and its leading politicians are of the rabid, fire-eating stripe, who keep up a constant ferment on the slavery question.

ALLEGHANY COUNTY, PA.—OFFICIAL.—Lincoln 16,725, Douglas fusion 6,725, Douglas straight 523, Bell 570. Lincoln's majority 10,000.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—As far as elected, the members of the house of representatives of the next congress stand—republicans 103, democrats 47, Union 3. The states that are yet to elect, being all southern except California, Connecticut, Rhode Island and New Hampshire, will probably give 9 republicans, 57 democrate and 18 Union. If so, the next house, which goes into session when Lincoln becomes president, will stand 112 republicans, 104 democrats, 21 Union.

NEW JERSEY.—The fusion majority in New Jersey is 1880, or about that. In the 1st and 2d districts, Nixon and Stratton, republicans, are elected to congress; and in the other three districts, Perry, Steele and Cobb, fusionists, are elected. In the legislature, the senate stands 11 republicans, 10 democrats, and 1 Bell man. House—28 republicans, 27 democrats, and 5 Bell men. The Bell men hold the balance of power. Of the Bell men, one is known to favor the republicans, which will give them within one vote of a majority.

MARYLAND.—Breckinridge's apparent plurality in the state is 368. Fuller returns may change the result.

NEW YORK.—The New York World of Saturday figures up Lincoln's majority in New York at 51,141. It says that the complete returns increase the republican majority in nearly every county.

RESULT IN WISCONSIN.—Reported majorities from all the counties in this state except twelve, and the majority for Lincoln is 16,662. It will probably be 18,000.

PHILADELPHIA.—The vote of Philadelphia city is as follows: Lincoln, 39,222; Reading ticket, 21,619; regular fusion ticket, 30,053; Bell, 7,131. Lincoln's majority over the Reading ticket, 17,604; over fusion, 9,170; over fusion and Bell, 2,039. Whole vote of city, 76,407. The straight Douglas vote is counted with the "regular fusion."

MICHIGAN.—The Detroit Advertiser of Saturday gives a table of majorities from forty-nine counties, which foot up 22,063 for Lincoln and 30 for Douglas. Lincoln's majority in the state will not be less than 23,000! That will do for the gallant Woolverines!

OHIO.—The Cincinnati Commercial of Saturday has a table of majorities from thirty-one counties, footing up 35,984 for Lincoln, being a republican gain since the October election of 10,600. Lincoln's majority in the state is in the neighborhood of 40,000.

A UNITED STATES SENATOR WEARING THE BLUE COCKADE.—We learn from the Columbus Times that Senator Toombs wore in the streets of Columbus, Ga. the other day, a blue cockade presented to him by some of the Montgomery ladies while he was in that city. "The old traitor."

DISUNION ITEMS.—A resolution has been introduced into the Georgia legislature declaring that state out of the union. Senator Toombs' resignation is to take effect on the 4th of March, unless Georgia sooner secedes. A resolution has been offered in the Georgia legislature that the representatives in congress from that state resist the counting of the electoral votes of those states which nullified the fugitive slave law. It is believed at Washington that the President will not interfere with the secessionists no matter what course they may take.—Stocks fell in New York on Monday from one to eight per cent., except state and United States. The banks of New York city have thrown out the bills of southern banks.

UNION ITEMS.—A meeting of Bell and Douglas parties has been held at Lexington denouncing disunion. Leslie Combs and others spoke. A large and enthusiastic union meeting was held at Henderson, Ky., on Saturday. Ex-Gov. Dixon presided. The New Orleans Picayune affirms that Louisiana will not lead nor follow in disunion.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 8.

HE WILL ISSUE NO MANIFESTO.—Mr. Lincoln is still continually visited by crowds of well-wishers; not only from his own party, but also from what was recently the democratic and Bell-Everett parties.

Although the city is well filled with visitors, no public celebration has yet been arranged, but one is determined upon as soon as complete official news shall arrive from all important quarters. Meanwhile, there is the greatest eagerness to ascertain in some manner the new President's intentions, as regards his own course and the character of his appointments. Mr. Lincoln, however, is the last man to gratify this curiosity until the proper time shall arrive. Not the slightest indication of his future movements is yielded to anybody.

There are many inquiries from abroad as to whether Mr. Lincoln will make any speech or write any letter defining his views but up to this he has certainly entertained no idea of writing or speaking upon the subject. He may, probably, in case of a popular demonstration, make a brief address, but it will be without preparation, and wholly informal. The only letters he writes are of a private nature, and there are plenty of these required.—New York Tribune.

A TREMENDOUS FAST HORSE.—Many years ago a solitary horseman might have been seen swiftly riding towards Toledo, Ohio. The sun had just set in the western horizon. 'Twas the close in short, of an election day, and that solitary horseman was courier from an important township in the country. All but the one we speak of had been heard from at Toledo, and the vote of this very township was needed to tell how the county had gone. At length the solitary horseman arrived in Toledo, and reined the foaming steed up before the Indiana House. A big crowd of whigs and democrats rushed for the news.

"Better time," said the solitary horseman, looking at his watch, "was never made by living boss! Fifteen miles in thirty-two minutes! What d'ye think of that, gentlemen!" asked the horseman.

"Cuss the horse," yelled the excited crowd, "how has —— township gone?"

"Gentlemen," replied the solitary horseman, "I disremember. It went either whig or democratic, but I've been so taken up with the speed of this 'ere hoss that I forgot which; but gentlemen!" roared the excited horseman, rising in his saddle and waving his whip in the air, "you may just rest satisfied on one point; all creation can't beat this hoss!"

The Boston Courier, the Belleverett organ, has a hard hit at its old fogy friends on the morning of election. It said: "Voters! Look sharp. Rub your spectacles well before you look."

The Angel's Visit.

Where two chairs stood by the fireside,
And two plates were on the board,
When the summer's gifts were garnered,
Fruits for winter evenings stored,
Came a dainty little stranger,
From the spirit world a ranger;
Came, and by the cheerful fireside
Quick was placed for him a chair;
And the happy hostess pondered
On the little being fair;
And the happy host oft wondered
That so rare a guest was there.
Naught they questioned whence, or wherefore
He had wandered, but a prayer
Often breathed they, that the stranger
Who had called, would tarry there.
For their hearts were yearning o'er him,
With a love so deep, and strong,
That they wondered how—without him—
They had lived, and loved, so long.

Where three chairs stood by the fireside,
And three plates were on the board,
One of fairy-like proportions,
With the daintiest morsels stored,
Tarried still the little stranger,
From the spirit world a ranger;
Tarried yet a little longer,
And the bonds were growing stronger,
That detained beneath the skies,
Angel guest from Paradise.
And each day with deeper feeling
Fraught with hope, and pride, and joy,
Hidden founts of love revealing,
Gazed they fondly on the boy;
Gazed the happy host and hostess,
On that wanderer from the skies;
Fondly dreaming that by kindness,
They'd detain him, in their blindness
Seeing not the pearly pinions,
On those dimpled shoulders folded.
Heedless that for higher regions
The little airy form was molded;
And to those regions soon must rise;
Vainly thought that host and hostess,
In their home beneath the skies,
To retain him, little dreaming,
That the shining throng had missed him,
From his place in Paradise.

Still three chairs stand by the fireside,
And three plates are on the board,
But in vain the plates are laden,
And the fragrant tea is poured,
Tearful eyes are ever turning
To the little vacant chair,
Bleeding hearts are ever yearning
O'er the loved that is not there.
Hoarded now is every treasure,
That the loved, and lost held dear;
Spurned is every worldly pleasure,
Earth is lone, and dark, and drear,
To those hearts so fondly brooding
O'er the joys forever gone.
All the light, from heart and dwelling,
With the little cherub flown.
Mem'ry with her darkest mantle
Wraps their soul in midnight gloom,
Shutting out the cheerful present,
Pointing always to the tomb.
And they wander in the shadow
Of their grief, which, like a pall
Shuts out all the light of Heaven,
Presses to their lips the gall,
Gall, and wormwood, but no balsam
From that crushing cloud of grief,
Gently falling—bringeth healing,
To the tortured soul relief,
And they wander in the darkness,
Where earth folded to her breast,
Little angel, form of beauty,
In its last, long, quiet rest:
Long they linger, nor return they,
From that sacred spot, unblessed.
On a marble slab uprising,
Lo! a little cherub hand,
With a finger pointing upward,
Toward the far off, happy land.
Just the image of the finger,
That so oft to their glad eyes,
Pointed out the stars, that lighted
All the pathway to the skies.
And beneath it, read they written,
Tear drops trembling in their eyes
Vainly strive to hide its meaning—
"Gone, to dwell in Paradise."

ATHENA.

EXODUS OF FREE NEGROES FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Philadelphia Press contains a long account of the colored refugees in that city, who have fled from South Carolina in consequence of the recent legislative enactments against their race. The provisions of the new law were that a single man must become their guardian; they were to be entered in the assessments as his slaves, and must carry about them certain copper badge, whereupon they were numbered. If found without a trustee, they were to be sold at the block; if failing to procure badges of servitude, to undergo a fine of twenty dollars; and if at any time destitute of them, to be fined or, imprisoned. Up to Nov. 1st, more than seven hundred and ninety persons departed from the port of Charleston alone. It took all the resources of some to reach N. Y. Of the number named, about one hundred and fifty made Philadelphia their destination, two thirds of whom are tradespeople. The men are carpenters, tailors, shoemakers and masons; the females, mantumakers, milliners, laundresses and nurses.

A handsome woman, almost white, says the Press, exhibited her "badge," or, as she facetiously termed it, her "putty goole watch." It was a diamond-shaped plate of copper, an inch square, bearing the inscription:

Charleston.
1860.
Servant.
1243.

This delicate piece of jewelry was punctured with a hole, and suspended thereby from a string. She had given $2 for it. Her husband had a similar one, labelled "Porter," for which he gave $4. The man and woman had been one day behindhand in "taking out" these badges, and they were fined $40 for being dilatory.

Many of the refugees parted with their property at ruinous rates, and many have still some effects in Charleston. Many of these ebony Evangelines have left in their Southern Arcadia relatives and friends, for whose safety their fears are ceaseless. The mother of a yellow girl told us that her daughter had a "younger feller in de Souf whose safety 'peared to weigh like on her mind," and as she said this her son, a tall young man, with glossy locks, was observed to wear an anxious look, as if he, too, had lost somebody in Carolina. We were told that one of the refugees had left an aged mother in Charleston. The old lady, on being solicited to come away with the family, replied that she had passed it lifetime in "de Souf, and, please God, she wanted te die dar; nobody wanted to make a slave of de weakly ole 'oman."

The troubles of these ebony people will not be appreciated by the white masses. Many of them are almost white. Several purchased their own freedom some years ago. One woman was directed to leave the state by her trustee, who was fearful that at his death certain unprincipled members of his family would attempt to coerce her into absolute slavery. The refugees took passage in the New York steamers, through white sponsors who testified to their freedom. Most of these unfortunates are destitute of employment.

THE WESTERN RESERVE OF OHIO.—This stronghold of freedom piled up a prodigious majority for Lincoln on Tuesday—reaching 26,357, a republican gain of 4,758 since the October election.

A SENSIBLE CONCLUSION.—The Atlanta (Ga.) American, after certain calculations in which figures don't lie, concluded, "sixthly, all who are in favor of civil war, starvation, ruin, desolation, robbery, arson, murder and the utter destruction of the south, should go for disunion if Lincoln is elected."

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.

The steamship Kangaroo has arrived. Dates to 31st anticipated.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Nov. 12.

The military state convention met to-day. The attendance was large, resolutions were passed favoring secession.

Gov. Brown made a strong resistance speech, declaring the right of secession and the duty of other states to sustain their rights. He declared if the federal troops attempted coercion, for every Georgian who fell in the conflict the heads of two federal soldiers should atone for, the outrage on state sovereignty. There is nothing interesting from the legislature.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 12.

The senate bill to suspend the penalties of suspension of specie payment by the banks passed on the 2d reading in the house. The convention bill was read the 3d time and passed unanimously. Its title was changed to an act, and sent to the senate to be ratified to-morrow.

Mr. Frenholme's resolution that the joint committee on military of both houses, during the recess, prepare a plan for arming the state; that the joint committee on finance prepare a scheme to raise the necessary supplies, were adopted.

Mr. Coffin proposed that the president of the bank of the state be authorised to advertise till the 23d of Nov. for sealed proposals for a loan of $400,000. He was authorised by a friend to say that he would take $100,000 at 5 per cent premium—not considered. The bill to arm the state was recommitted. A resolution passed for managers to give notice of election. The resolution for the committee on military to inquire into the propriety of fortifying various exposed towns on the sea cost—lost.

The house met this evening and read the bank bill the 3d time; its title was changed to an act and it was sent to the senate for ratification.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.

Wm. George Brown, the reform mayor, was inaugurated to-day. He closed his inaugural address with strong expressions of Union sentiments. He said it was the true policy of Maryland to adhere to the Union as long as she could do so with honor and safety. In conclusion he said no cause has yet arisen sufficient to justify the overthrow of the noblest and most beneficent government ever established by human wisdom, and which is consecrated and endeared to the hearts of all, not only by the abundant blessings of the present moment, but by the sacred memories of the past and the great hopes of the future.

A mass meeting of citizens to sustain the Union is much canvassed by our business men.

A southerner made his appearance on the streets this morning, with a blue cockade on his hat! He was regarded with a great curiosity, but evidently with but little favor.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

At the trial of the rioters to day it transpired that there was a concerted plan to destroy the republican wigwam by the Breckinridge club before the election of Lincoln. The police are seriously implicated in the outrage. The States newspaper comes out as an independent journal, opposing disunion. A company of U. S. artillery left Fort Hamilton, Saturday for Fayetteville, N. C., to protect the U. S. arsenal at that place.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

Sunday night the Erie railroad safe at the Jersey City depot was robbed of $10,000 in bills and specie.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

The Times correspondent.—Several leading Virginians here represented to be the purpose of their state to become the mediator between the sections when South Carolina shall have accomplished secession.—The basis will require that no one be elected President unless he receives a majority of both sections of the Union and that no law be passed except by a majority of the members representing both sections thus securing a majority of the whole people in each case. Hearing of Gov. Wise's movements in organizing minute men, Governor Letcher it is said, addressed him a note, hinting that he, Wise, was no longer Gov. of Virginia, but that another had succeeded him who would take care of the public interest of the state.

World correspondence.—Several Virginia congressmen are here, they represent the sentiment of Virginia as in favor of submitting to the election of Lincoln. Rumors gain credit that Attorney Gen. Black and Sec'y. Floyd have informed the President that they will resign if he upholds the federal laws in case of nullification by any state.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

Flour market heavy and 5a10c lower—sales 10,000 bbls. 5,20a5,25 super western, 5,40a5,70 common to medium extra western. Wheat market heavy and 1a2c lower. 1,16a1,21 Chicago spring, 1,24a1,25 Milwaukee club, 1,25a1,26 amber Wisconsin, 1,33a1,24 winter red western.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 13.

On receipt of New York market, wheat declined 1c, but closed firm at the decline. Sales at 82a84 for Nos. 2 and 1.

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 8.

The pony express, with dates to Oct. 27, reached here this noon. Through some error the news was not intercepted at Fort Kearney.

The steamer Uncle Sam is full three days overdue from Panama, with the passengers leaving New York on the 1st inst., which causes apprehensions that the rioters on the Isthmus may have damaged the railroad and otherwise stopped communication between Aspinwall and Panama.

Senator Baker of Oregon addressed an immense audience in San Francisco last evening. He avowed his intention to abide by the doctrine of non-intervention with slavery in the territories, not as a principle, but as a policy.

Two men were dreadfully lacerated at Cruso Valley, on the 25th, by the premature discharge of a cannon, while firing a salute in honor of the republican victories in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. One of them, named Gaylord Campton, will probably lose both his eyes.

The directors of the San Francisco and San Jose railroad have let the contract for completing the work within three years, for $2,000,000. The distance is about forty-five miles.

Recent intelligence from Oregon says that the accounts of the late massacre of emigrants by the Snake Indians were much exaggerated. Col. Wright has received positive information that all but eleven of the train had arrived at the settlements in safety, and strong hopes were entertained of the escape of the eleven that had become separated from the main body.

The first considerable rain of the season occurred in Oregon on Wednesday, October 17th.

The great Almaden quicksilver mine case is still pending in the United States circuit court.

If you respect yourself as much as you do others, you will be as careful to do nothing mean when alone as when in company.

In regard to the Sale or Giving Away of Intoxicating Drinks on Sunday.

WHEREAS, it has been brought to my notice that many of the shops and saloons of this city are kept open on Sunday, and that spiritous, vinous and fermented liquors are sold therein on said day, in violation of the Revised Statutes of the state of Wisconsin, under which licenses are granted by the Common Council of this city:

Therefore, the attention of all persons dealing in spiritous, vinous or fermented liquors, in the city of Janesville, is hereby called to chapter 35 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Wisconsin, and also to the amendment of said excise law, entitled, "An act to prohibit the selling of intoxicating drinks on Sunday or certain other days therein mentioned." Approved March 16th, 1859.

Also the requirements of the Common Council of this city in granting licences for selling or dealing in spiritous, vinous or fermented liquors.

Every person or persons violating any of the provisions of said law, as amended, or failing to comply with the requirements of the Common Council, will be prosecuted in conformity to said law.

MR. L. In fact it is the first and only bed spring I have been willing to use. Besides being exceedingly comfortable, it is at once simple, cleanly and durable. Its use, moreover, is conducive to health, as it sustains the mattrass in such a way as to expose its under surface at all times to a free circulation of air.

Official Paper of the City.

Are there Traitors at Washington?

Since the disunion movements in South Carolina and Georgia have assumed a semi-serious aspect, the natural inquiry of the public is turned to the President, to discover, if possible, whether he and his cabinet are in complicity with the traitors who are now attempting to raise a rebellion to dissolve the Union.

So far as Mr. Buchanan is concerned nothing is absolutely known. The Constitution, his organ, has been indulging, of late, in articles asserting the right of a State to secede from the Union, but it says it speaks for itself, and not the President. This does, apparently, clear him from responsibility for those articles; but as the paper is sustained almost wholly by official patronage, it is evident that it does not fear its withdrawal on account of the promulgation of such opinions. We may, therefore, conclude that he is not very much opposed to the doctrines of his organ.

It has also been remarked that the President has taken no precautions for the safety of the forts and arsenals in the South. They are so poorly manned with soldiers that any one of them might be taken into the possession of the disunionists. Fort Moultrie, at Charleston, is said to be entirely at the mercy of the traitors, who have so long threatened the public peace in that locality.

The President is at this time close-mouthed upon a subject which occupies the attention of the nation. He has no word in private, or in public through proclamations, or by the aid of his confidential newspaper organs. They are all dumb, so far as speaking for him is concerned, while their own private influence is given to the disunionists. Such a position as this, on the part of the head of the nation, at a time when his influence and his acts are demanded to suppress disloyalty to the country is giving uneasiness to the friends of the Union.

If the President occupies an equivocal position, it is not so with his Secretary of the Treasury. Before the election he was in New York consorting with enemies of the country, to get up a financial panic, to aid the disunionists in alarming the country. While there he did not hesitate to express his sympathy with the traitors who were conspiring to dissolve the union.

Secretary Cobb has control of the national treasury, and holds his office at the will of the President. His plots and his private harangues must be known to the President, and yet he either does not dare to remove him from his responsible, and if an enemy, most dangerous position in the government, or else the head of the nation, is with him in sentiment in his treasonable design. It is clear that we have not a Jackson at the helm of government at this time, for he would have instantly and publicly thrown the weight of his great influence against the traitors. No cabinet officer of his would have remained a moment in office who refused to clear his skirts of the taint of disunion.

From all that has transpired, so far, it may be fairly suspected that we have traitors at Washington, and that the President of the nation may be one of them.

IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT IN VIRGINIA.—In answer to Mr. Wise's disunion propositions, a Wheeling paper says that if eastern Virginia goes out of the Union, western Virginia will not, but will remain in the Union as a free state. There are indications that the conflict, long preparing, between the eastern and western sections of Virginia on the slavery question, will develope itself rapidly and powerfully from this time. There is in western Virginia a deeply seated jealousy and distrust of the eastern section. The east is the slaveholding and slave breeding section—the west is comparatively free. The east monopolizes most of the state and federal offices, and its leading politicians are of the rabid, fire-eating stripe, who keep up a constant ferment on the slavery question.

ALLEGHANY COUNTY, PA.—OFFICIAL.—Lincoln 16,725, Douglas fusion 6,725, Douglas straight 523, Bell 570. Lincoln's majority 10,009.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—As far as elected, the members of the house of representatives of the next congress stand—republicans 103, democrats 47, Union 3. The states that are yet to elect, being all southern except California, Connecticut, Rhode Island and New Hampshire, will probably give 9 republicans, 57 democrats and 18 Union. If so, the next house, which goes into session when Lincoln becomes president, will stand 112 republicans, 104 democrats, 21 Union.

NEW JERSEY.—The fusion majority in New Jersey is 1880, or about that. In the 1st and 2d districts, Nixon and Stratton, republicans, are elected to congress; and in the other three districts, Perry, Steele and Cobb, fusionists, are elected. In the legislature, the senate stands 11 republicans, 10 democrats, and 1 Bell man. House—28 republicans, 27 democrats, and 5 Bell men. The Bell men hold the balance of power. Of the Bell men, one is known to favor the republicans, which will give them within one vote of a majority.

MARYLAND.—Breckinridge's apparent plurality in the state is 368. Fuller returns may change the result.

NEW YORK.—The New York World of Saturday figures up Lincoln's majority in New York at 51,141. It says that the complete returns increase the republican majority in nearly every county.

RESULT IN WISCONSIN.—Reported majorities from all the counties in this state except twelve, and the majority for Lincoln is 16,662. It will probably be 18,000.

PHILADELPHIA.—The vote of Philadelphia city is as follows: Lincoln, 39,222; Reading ticket, 21,619; regular fusion ticket, 30,053; Bell, 7,131. Lincoln's majority over the Reading ticket, 17,604; over fusion, 9,170; over fusion and Bell, 2,039. Whole vote of city, 76,407. The straight Douglas vote is counted with the "regular fusion."

MICHIGAN.—The Detroit Advertiser of Saturday gives a table of majorities from forty-nine counties, which foot up 22,063 for Lincoln and 30 for Douglas. Lincoln's majority in the state will not be less than 28,000! That will do for the gallant Woolverines!

OHIO.—The Cincinnati Commercial of Saturday has a table of majorities from thirty-one counties, footing up 35,983 for Lincoln, being, a republican gain since the October election of 10,600. Lincoln's majority in the state is in the neighborhood of 40,000.

A UNITED STATES SENATOR WEARING THE BLUE COCKADE.—We learn from the Columbus Times that Senator Toombs wore in the streets of Columbus, Ga. the other day, a blue cockade presented to him by some of the Montgomery ladies while he was in that city. "The old traitor."

DISUNION ITEMS.—A resolution has been introduced into the Georgia legislature declaring that state out of the union. Senator Toombs' resignation is to take effect on the 4th of March, unless Georgia sooner secedes. A resolution has been offered in the Georgia legislature that the representatives in congress from that state resist the counting of the electoral votes of those states which nullified the fugitive slave law. It is believed at Washington that the President will not interfere with the secessionists no matter what course they may take.—Stocks fell in New York on Monday from one to eight per cent., except state and United States. The banks of New York city have thrown out the bills of southern banks.

UNION ITEMS.—A meeting of Bell and Douglas parties has been held at Lexington denouncing disunion. Leslie Combs and others spoke. A large and enthusiastic union meeting was held at Henderson, Ky., on Saturday. Ex-Gov. Dixon presided. The New Orleans Picayune affirms that Louisiana will not lead nor follow in disunion.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 8.

HE WILL ISSUE NO MANIFESTO.—Mr. Lincoln is still continually visited by crowds of well-wishers; not only from his own party, but also from what was recently the democratic and Bell-Everett parties.

Although the city is well filled with visitors, no public celebration has yet been arranged, but one is determined upon as soon as complete official news shall arrive from all important quarters. Meanwhile, there is the greatest eagerness to ascertain in some manner the new President's intentions, as regards his own course and the character of his appointments. Mr. Lincoln, however, is the last man to gratify this curiosity until the proper time shall arrive. Not the slightest indication of his future movements is yielded to anybody.

There are many inquiries from abroad as to whether Mr. Lincoln will make any speech or write any letter defining his views but up to this he has certainly entertained no idea of writing or speaking upon the subject. He may, probably, in case of a popular demonstration, make a brief address, but it will be without preparation, and wholly informal. The only letters he writes are of a private nature, and there are plenty of these required.—New York Tribune.

A TREMENDOUS FAST HORSE.—Many years ago a solitary horseman might have been seen swiftly riding towards Toledo, Ohio. The sun had just set in the western horizon. 'Twas the close in short, of an election day, and that solitary horseman was courier from an important township in the country. All but the one we speak of had been heard from at Toledo, and the vote of this very township was needed to tell how the county had gone. At length the solitary horseman arrived in Toledo, and reined the foaming steed up before the Indiana House. A big crowd of whigs and democrats rushed for the news.

"Better time," said the solitary horseman, looking at his watch, "was never made by living hoss! Fifteen miles in thirty-two minutes! What d'ye think of that, gentlemen!" asked the horseman.

"Cuss the horse," yelled the excited crowd, "how has —— township gone?"

"Gentlemen," replied the solitary horseman, "I disremember. It went either whig or democratic, but I've been so taken up with the speed of this 'ere hoss that I forgot which; but gentlemen!" roared the excited horseman, rising in his saddle and waving his whip in the air, "you may just rest satisfied on one point; all creation can't beat this hoss!"

The Boston Courier, the Bell-everett organ, has a hard hit at its old fogy friends on the morning of election. It said: "Voters! Look sharp. Rub your spectacles well before you look."

The Angel's Visit.

Where two chairs stood by the fireside,
And two plates were on the board,
When the summer's gifts were garnered,
Fruits for winter evenings stored,
Came a dainty little stranger,
From the spirit world a ranger;
Came, and by the cheerful fireside
Quick was placed for him a chair:
And the happy hostess pondered
On the little being fair;
And the happy host oft wondered
That so rare a guest was there.
Naught they questioned whence, or wherefore
He had wandered, but a prayer
Often breathed they, that the stranger
Who had called, would tarry there.
For their hearts were yearning o'er him
With a love so deep, and strong,
That they wondered how—without him—
They had lived, and loved, so long.

Where three chairs stood by the fireside,
And three plates were on the board,
One of fairy-like proportions,
With the dantiest morsels stored,
Tarried still the little stranger,
From the spirit world a ranger;
Tarried yet a little longer,
And the bonds were growing stronger,
That detained beneath the skies,
Angel guest from Paradise.
And each day with deeper feeling
Fraught with hope, and pride, and joy,
Hidden founts of love revealing,
Gazed they fondly on the boy;
Gazed the happy host and hostess,
On that wanderer from the skies;
Fondly dreaming that by kindness,
They'd detain him, in their blindness
Seeing not the pearly pinions,
On those dimpled shoulders folded.
Heedless that for higher regions
The little airy form was molded,
And to those regions soon must rise;
Vainly thought that host and hostess,
In their home beneath the skies,
To retain him, little dreaming,
That the shining throng had missed him,
From his place in Paradise.

Still three chairs stand by the fireside,
And three plates are on the board,
But in vain the plates are laden,
And the fragrant tea is poured.
Tearful eyes are ever turning
To the little vacant chair,
Bleeding hearts are ever yearning
O'er the loved that is not there.
Hoarded now is every treasure,
That the loved, and lost held dear;
Spurned is every worldly pleasure,
Earth is lone, and dark, and drear,
To those hearts so fondly brooding
O'er the joys forever gone.
All the light, from heart and dwelling,
With the little cherub flown.
Mem'ry with her darkest mantle
Wraps their soul in midnight gloom,
Shutting out the cheerful present,
Pointing always to the tomb.
And they wander in the shadow
Of their grief, which, like a pall
Shuts out all the light of Heaven,
Presses to their lips the gall,
Gall, and wormwood, but no balsam
From that crushing cloud of grief,
Gently falling—bringeth healing,
To the tortured soul relief,
And they wander in the darkness,
Where earth folded to her breast,
Little angel form of beauty,
In its last, long, quiet rest.
Long they linger, nor return they,
From that sacred spot, unblessed,
On a marble slab uprising,
Lo! a little cherub hand,
With a finger pointing upward,
Toward the far off, happy land.
Just the image of the finger,
That so oft to their glad eyes,
Pointed out the stars, that lighted
All the pathway to the skies,
And beneath it, read they written,
Tear drops trembling in their eyes
Vainly strive to hide its meaning—
"Gone, to dwell in Paradise." ATHENA.

EXODUS OF FREE NEGROES FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Philadelphia Press contains a long account of the colored refugees in that city, who have fled from South Carolina in consequence of the recent legislative enactments against their race. The provisions of the new law were that a single man must become their guardian; they were to be entered in the assessments as his slaves, and must carry about them certain copper badge, whereupon they were numbered. If found without a trustee, they were to be sold at the block; if failing to procure badges of servitude, to undergo a fine of twenty dollars; and if at any time destitute of them, to be fined or imprisoned. Up to Nov. 1st, more than seven hundred and ninety persons departed from the port of Charleston alone. It took all the resources of some to reach N. Y. Of the number named, about one hundred and fifty made Philadelphia their destination, two thirds of whom are tradespeople. The men are carpenters, tailors, shoemakers and masons; the females, mantumakers, milliners, laundresses and nurses.

A handsome woman, almost white, says the Press, exhibited her "badge," or, as she facetiously termed it, her "putty goole watch." It was a diamond-shaped plate of copper, an inch square, bearing the inscription:

"Charleston.
1860.
Servant.
1243."

This delicate piece of jewelry was punctured with a hole, and suspended thereby from a string. She had given $2 for it. Her husband had a similar one, labelled "Porter," for which he gave $4. The man and woman had been one day behindhand in "taking out" these badges, and they were fined $40 for being dilatory.

Many of the refugees parted with their property at ruinous rates, and many have still some effects in Charleston. Many of these ebony Evangelines have left in their Southern Arcadia relatives and friends, for whose safety their fears are ceaseless. The mother of a yellow girl told us that her daughter had a "younger feller in de Souf whose safety 'peared to weigh like on her mind," and as she said this her son, a tall young man, with glossy locks, was observed to wear an anxious look, as if he, too, had lost somebody in Carolina. We were told that one of the refugees had left an aged mother in Charleston. The old lady, on being solicited to come away with the family, replied that she had passed a lifetime in "de Souf, and, please God, she wanted to die dar; nobody wanted to make a slave of de weakly ole 'oman."

The troubles of these ebony people will not be appreciated by the white masses. Many of them are almost white. Several purchased their own freedom some years ago. One woman was directed to leave the state by her trustee, who was fearful that at his death certain unprincipled members of his family would attempt to coerce her into absolute slavery. The refugees took passage in the New York steamers, through white sponsors who testified to their freedom. Most of these unfortunates are destitute of employment.

THE WESTERN RESERVE OF OHIO.—This stronghold of freedom piled up a prodigious majority for Lincoln on Tuesday—reaching 26,357, a republican gain of 4,758 since the October election.

A SENSIBLE CONCLUSION.—The Atlanta (Ga.) American, after certain calculations in which figures don't lie, concluded, "sixthly, all who are in favor of civil war, starvation, ruin, desolation, robbery, arson, murder and the utter destruction of the south, should go for disunion if Lincoln is elected."

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.

The steamship Kangaroo has arrived. Dates to 31st anticipated.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Nov. 12.

The military state convention met to-day. The attendance was large, resolutions were passed favoring secession.

Gov. Brown made a strong resistance speech, declaring the right of secession and the duty of other states to sustain their rights. He declared if the federal troops attempted coercion, for every Georgian who fell in the conflict the heads of two federal soldiers should atone for the outrage on state sovereignty. There is nothing interesting from the legislature.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 12.

The senate bill to suspend the penalties of suspension of specie payment by the banks passed on the 2d reading in the house. The convention bill was read the 3d time and passed unanimously. Its title was changed to an act, and sent to the senate to be ratified to-morrow.

Mr. Frenholme's resolution that the joint committee on military of both houses, during the recess, prepare a plan for arming the state; that the joint committee on finance prepare a scheme to raise the necessary supplies, were adopted.

Mr. Coffin proposed that the president of the bank of the state be authorised to advertise till the 23d of Nov. for sealed proposals for a loan of $400,000. He was authorised by a friend to say that he would take $100,000 at 5 per cent premium—not considered. The bill to arm the state was recommitted. A resolution passed for managers to give notice of election. The resolution for the committee on military to inquire into the propriety of fortifying various exposed towns on the sea cost—lost.

The house met this evening and read the bank bill the 3d time; its title was changed to an act and it was sent to the senate for ratification.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.

Wm. George Brown, the reform mayor, was inaugurated to-day. He closed his inaugural address with strong expressions of Union sentiments. He said it was the true policy of Maryland to adhere to the Union as long as she could do so with honor and safety. In conclusion he said no cause has yet arisen sufficient to justify the overthrow of the noblest and most beneficent government ever established by human wisdom, and which is consecrated and endeared to the hearts of all, not only by the abundant blessings of the present moment, but by the sacred memories of the past and the great hopes of the future.

A mass meeting of citizens to sustain the Union is much canvassed by our business men.

A southerner made his appearance on the streets this morning, with a blue cockade on his hat. He was regarded with a great curiosity, but evidently with but little favor.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

At the trial of the rioters to day it transpired that there was a concerted plan to destroy the republican wigwam by the Breckinridge club before the election of Lincoln. The police are seriously implicated in the outrage. The States newspaper comes out as an independent journal, opposing disunion. A company of U. S. artillery left Fort Hamilton, Saturday for Fayetteville, N. C., to protect the U. S. arsenal at that place.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

Sunday night the Erie railroad safe at the Jersey City depot was robbed of $10,000 in bills and specie.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.

The Times correspondent.—Several leading Virginians here represented to be the purpose of their state to become the mediator between the sections when South Carolina shall have accomplished secession.—The basis will require that no one be elected President unless he receives a majority of both sections of the Union and that no law be passed except by a majority of the members representing both sections thus securing a majority of the whole people in each case. Hearing of Gov. Wise's movements in organizing minute men, Governor Letcher it is said, addressed him a note, hinting that he, Wise, was no longer Gov. of Virginia, but that another had succeeded him who would take care of the public interest of the state.

World correspondence.—Several Virginia congressmen are here, they represent the sentiment of Virginia as in favor of submitting to the election of Lincoln. Rumors gain credit that Attorney Gen. Black and Sec'y. Floyd have informed the President that they will resign if he upholds the federal laws in case of nullification by any state.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

Flour market heavy and 5a10c lower—sales 10,000 bbls. 5,20a5,25 super western, 5,40a5,70 common to medium extra western. Wheat market heavy and 1a2c lower. 1,16a1,21 Chicago spring, 1,24a1,25 Milwaukee club, 1,25a1,26 amber Wisconsin, 1,33a1,24 winter red western.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 13.

On receipt of New York market, wheat declined 1c, but closed firm at the decline. Sales at 82a84 for Nbs. 2 and 1.

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 8.

The pony express, with dates to Oct. 27, reached here this noon. Through some error the news was not intercepted at Fort Kearney.

The steamer Uncle Sam is full three days overdue from Panama, with the passengers leaving New York on the 1st inst., which causes apprehensions that the rioters on the Isthmus may have damaged the railroad and otherwise stopped communication between Aspinwall and Panama.

Senator Baker of Oregon addressed an immense audience in San Francisco last evening. He avowed his intention to abide by the doctrine of non-intervention with slavery in the territories, not as a principle, but as a policy.

Two men were dreadfully lacerated at Cruso Valley, on the 25th, by the premature discharge of a cannon, while firing a salute in honor of the republican victories in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. One of them, named Gaylord Campton, will probably lose both his eyes.

The directors of the San Francisco and San Jose railroad have let the contract for completing the work within three years, for $2,000,000. The distance is about forty-five miles.

Recent intelligence from Oregon says that the accounts of the late massacre of emigrants by the Snake Indians were much exaggerated. Col. Wright has received positive information that all but eleven of the train had arrived at the settlements in safety, and strong hopes were entertained of the escape of the eleven that had become separated from the main body.

The first considerable rain of the season occurred in Oregon on Wednesday, October 17th.

The great Almaden quicksilver mine case is still pending in the United States circuit court.

If you respect yourself as much as you do others, you will be as careful to do nothing mean when alone as when in company.

Proclamation by the Mayor,

In regard to the Sale or Giving Away of Intoxicating Drinks on Sunday.

WHEREAS, it has been brought to my notice that many of the shops and saloons of this city are kept open on Sunday, and that spirituous, vinous and fermented liquors are sold therein on said day, in violation of the Revised Statutes of the state of Wisconsin, under which licenses are granted by the Common Council of this city:

Therefore, the attention of all persons dealing in spirituous, vinous or fermented liquors, in the city of Janesville, is hereby called to chapter 35 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Wisconsin, and also to the amendment of said excise law, entitled "An act to prohibit the selling of intoxicating drinks on Sunday or certain other days therein mentioned." Approved March 16th, 1859.

Also the requirements of the Common Council of this city in granting licences for selling or dealing in spirituous, vinous or fermented liquors.

Every person or persons violating any of the provisions of said law, as amended, or failing to comply with the requirements of the Common Council, will be prosecuted in conformity to said law.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Celebration at Edgerton.

The wide-awake republicans of Fulton had a wide-awake celebration at Edgerton last evening. Early in the evening a procession was formed in front of the drug store of Dr. Burdick, under the charge of Dr. B. as marshal and Lee Brown as assistant, and marched through the principal streets of the village. The procession was composed of the Milton wide-awakes, with a few from Janesville, the Edgerton horse company, comprising the young men of the village, under command of O. P. Fassett, and citizens. A prominent feature in this procession was a representation by ladies of the states which have given their electoral vote to Lincoln, each lady carrying a flag with the name of the state and the majority given by it. To these was appropriately added a flag for the town of Fulton, and the majority rolled up by the energetic republicans of that town. The procession was led by the Rock River band, assisted by some of the citizens of Edgerton.

Bonfires were kindled in several places, the materials for a very large one in front of Swift's hall having been contributed by republican farmers in the vicinity. Swift's hall and Dr. Burdick's drug store, the residences of Deacon Palmer and D. W. Kent were illuminated. The residence of Deacon Palmer, favorably situated at the head of a street, was brilliantly lighted, and equaled the display from any of the buildings in this city last Thursday evening.

A cannon procured from Milton was effectively served in the evening, and added its tones to the general demonstrations of rejoicing so proper to the occasion.

A well-made transparency, enforcing the obvious truth "Fulton is Redeemed" was suspended in front of Swift's block.

After the display in the streets, a large crowd assembled in and about Swift's hall. This hall is a large and commodious room, and preparations had been made for seating over 500 persons. Every seat was filled, and all the standing room closely packed. There must have been nearly 700 persons in the hall, and very many remained outside who were unable to find room in it.

A temporary organization was made by appointing J. M. Burgess of this city chairman, when Deacon Palmer, as president of the Fulton club, relieved from his duties, assumed the place of permanent presiding officer. The Janesville glee club, under the lead of T. Hornick, in the absence of J. R. Bennett, interspersed the speaking with their best songs, which were received with rapturous applause. Messrs. L. P. Harvey, S. D. Hastings, S. J. M. Putnam, Alexander Graham, H. A. Patterson and A. C. Bates successively addressed the audience. Each had a telling point or a happy anecdote, and no one committed the blunder of speaking too long. If the republicans of Fulton could be made vain, they'll assuredly grow proud over the many well-merited compliments bestowed upon them for their hard-won and brilliant victory.

At the close of these exercises, a most bountiful supply of well-prepared food was passed to all present. In this particular if this repast was an indication to the general liberality of the citizens of Edgerton, there need be no fears of want or empty stomachs in that flourishing locality.

A ball closed the proceedings of the evening. When we left the village, Swift's hall was filled with a crowd of happy dancers and equally well pleased spectators.

Under all the circumstances, we have witnessed no celebration more successful than this at Edgerton. Democrats as well as republicans entered into it with spirit to give it success. We noticed among those present, republicans from various towns in the county who attended to manifest their appreciation of the efforts which resulted in one of the most significant victories of the contest now so gloriously closed. If the republicans of the town will consolidate their organization and continue their labors, Fulton will hereafter be counted among the most reliable of the republican towns of "old Rock."

FOUND.—A fur cuff. The owner can have it by calling at this office.

RAILROAD SHIPMENTS.—During October there were shipped from Janesville over the Chicago and Northwestern railway 45,300 bushels of wheat and 6,868 bushels of corn.

CASSELL'S FAMILY BIBLE continues to make its semi-monthly appearance with great regularity; we agree fully with the New York Independent which says: "From the specimens we have seen, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it the most desirable illustrated Bible ever issued. It is emphatically a Bible for the people."

COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—This body met at 1 o'clock this afternoon. We shall publish a report daily of its proceedings.

At the organization of the board this afternoon, every member was present, except Mr. David Merrill of the town of Beloit,—H. G. Greenman, of Milton, was elected chairman of the board on the 4th formal ballot, receiving 14 votes and J. L. V. Thomas of Newark 12 votes.

POTATOES.—Mr. A. J. Luckey, of the town of Bradford, has left with us a sample of potatoes of the regular Lincoln variety. One cluster, all united by the meat and not by the stem, weighs 3¼ lbs., and a single one measures 19 inches in its longest circumference. Mr. Luckey sent 3½ bushels of "the same sort" to a friend in Chicago. Evidently, potatoes don't grow small in Bradford.

BURMAH—ITS PEOPLE AND MISSIONS.—An address on this subject will be given at the Baptist church on Wednesday evening, by Mr. Vinton, a native of Burmah, who, after five years' study in this country, returns to his fatherland. He will sing in the Karen language. All are invited to come in.

MINNESOTA.—Lincoln's majority in this state will exceed 10,000.

BOLD THEFT.—The warehouse of J. S. Chapin of this city, was broken into and a quantity of wheat taken from it under circumstances of unusual boldness and daring. About 2 o'clock in the evening, the man in charge of the warehouse had occasion to accidentally visit it, and when he had tried his key to the lock he found the lock had been removed. Opening the door he found a man inside who immediately closed it on him, and called "help." Another person inside then came to the door and held it fast against the efforts to open it. The man who made this discovery, at once started for aid, and when he returned with such aid, both doors of the warehouse were open and the persons inside had fled. An investigation led to the discovery of a loss of about 50 bushels of wheat in bags, and but for the timely visit of the man in the employ of Mr. Chapin, the warehouse would probably have been "cleaned out" of all its contents.

THE NEBRASKA FRAUD.—Morton (dem.) was awarded the certificate as delegate to congress, on a reputed majority of fourteen. This majority is secured by a return of 122 votes in his favor in a district where there are not three voters. If Morton goes to Washington with such a certificate, he ought to be made to pay his own expenses.

In New Jersey the Douglasites cheated the fusionists by voting a straight Douglas ticket, thus electing three Douglas men, but probably defeating the Breckinridge and Bell men, and giving four of the electors to the republicans.

One of the best results of the whole campaign was developed in the town of Newport, Kentucky, where Lincoln beat Breckinridge about two to one.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country, and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparalleled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until, its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to those well known, reliable, and prompt paying

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Tuesday Evening, Nov'r. 13, 1860.

Official Paper of the City.

Are there Traitors at Washington?

Since the disunion movements in South Carolina and Georgia have assumed a semi-serious aspect, the natural inquiry of the public is turned to the President, to discover, if possible, whether he and his cabinet are in complicity with the traitors who are now attempting to raise a rebellion to dissolve the Union.

So far as Mr. Buchanan is concerned nothing is absolutely known. The Constitution, his organ, has been indulging, of late, in articles asserting the right of a State to secede from the Union, but it says it speaks for itself, and not the President. This does, apparently, clear him from responsibility for those articles; but as the paper is sustained almost wholly by official patronage, it is evident that it does not fear its withdrawal on account of the promulgation of such opinions. We may, therefore, conclude that he is not very much opposed to the doctrines of his organ.

It has also been remarked that the President has taken no precautions for the safety of the forts and arsenals in the South. They are so poorly manned with soldiers that any one of them might be taken into the possession of the disunionists. Fort Moultrie, at Charleston, is said to be entirely at the mercy of the traitors, who have so long threatened the public peace in that locality.

The President is at this time close-mouthed upon a subject which occupies the attention of the nation. He has no word in private, or in public through proclamations, or by the aid of his confidential newspaper organs. They are all dumb, so far as speaking for him is concerned, while their own private influence is given to the disunionists. Such a position as this, on the part of the head of the nation, at a time when his influence and his acts are demanded to suppress disloyalty to the country is giving uneasiness to the friends of the Union.

If the President occupies an equivocal position, it is not so with his Secretary of the Treasury. Before the election he was in New York consorting with enemies of the country, to get up a financial panic, to aid the disunionists in alarming the country. While there he did not hesitate to express his sympathy with the traitors who were conspiring to dissolve the union.

Secretary Cobb has control of the national treasury, and holds his office at the will of the President. His plots and his private harangues must be known to the President, and yet he either does not dare to remove him from his responsible, and if an enemy, most dangerous position in the government, or else the head of the nation, is with him in sentiment in his treasonable design. It is clear that we have not a Jackson at the helm of government at this time, for he would have instantly and publicly thrown the weight of his great influence against the traitors. No cabinet officer of his would have remained a moment in office who refused to clear his skirts of the taint of disunion.

From all that has transpired, so far, it may be fairly suspected that we have traitors at Washington, and that the President of the nation may be one of them.

Irrepressible Conflict in Virginia.—In answer to Mr. Wise's disunion propositions, a Wheeling paper says that if eastern Virginia goes out of the Union, western Virginia will not, but will remain in the Union as a free state. There are indications that the conflict, long preparing, between the eastern and western sections of Virginia on the slavery question, will develope itself rapidly and powerfully from this time. There is in western Virginia a deeply seated jealousy and distrust of the eastern section. The east is the slaveholding and slave breeding section—the west is comparatively free. The east monopolizes most of the state and federal offices, and its leading politicians are of the rabid, fire-eating stripe, who keep up a constant ferment on the slavery question.

Alleghany County, Pa.—Official.—Lincoln 16,725, Douglas fusion 6,725, Douglas straight 523, Bell 570. Lincoln's majority 10,000.

The Next Congress.—As far as elected, the members of the house of representatives of the next congress stand—republicans 103, democrats 47, Union 3. The states that are yet to elect, being all southern except California, Connecticut, Rhode Island and New Hampshire, will probably give 9 republicans, 57 democrats and 18 Union. If so, the next house, which goes into session when Lincoln becomes president, will stand 112 republicans, 104 democrats, 21 Union.

New Jersey.—The fusion majority in New Jersey is 1880, or about that. In the 1st and 2d districts, Nixon and Stratton, republicans, are elected to congress; and in the other three districts, Perry, Steele and Cobb, fusionists, are elected. In the legislature, the senate stands 11 republicans, 10 democrats, and 1 Bell man. House—28 republicans, 27 democrats, and 5 Bell men. The Bell men hold the balance of power. Of the Bell men, one is known to favor the republicans, which will give them within one vote of a majority.

Maryland.—Breckinridge's apparent plurality in the state is 368. Fuller returns may change the result.

New York.—The New York World of Saturday figures up Lincoln's majority in New York at 51,141. It says that the complete returns increase the republican majority in nearly every county.

Result in Wisconsin.—Reported majorities from all the counties in this state except twelve, and the majority for Lincoln is 16,662. It will probably be 18,000.

Philadelphia.—The vote of Philadelphia city is as follows: Lincoln, 39,222; Reading ticket, 21,619; regular fusion ticket, 30,053; Bell, 7,131. Lincoln's majority over the Reading ticket, 17,604; over fusion, 9,170; over fusion and Bell, 2,039. Whole vote of city, 76,407. The straight Douglas vote is counted with the "regular fusion."

Michigan.—The Detroit Advertiser of Saturday gives a table of majorities from forty-nine counties, which foot up 22,063 for Lincoln and 30 for Douglas. Lincoln's majority in the state will not be less than 23,000. That will do for the gallant Woolverines!

Ohio.—The Cincinnati Commercial of Saturday has a table of majorities from thirty-one counties, footing up 35,984 for Lincoln, being a republican gain since the October election of 10,600. Lincoln's majority in the state is in the neighborhood of 40,000.

A United States Senator Wearing the Blue Cockade.—We learn from the Columbus Times that Senator Toombs wore in the streets of Columbus, Ga. the other day, a blue cockade presented to him by some of the Montgomery ladies while he was in that city. "The old traitor."

Disunion Items.—A resolution has been introduced into the Georgia legislature declaring that state out of the union. Senator Toombs' resignation is to take effect on the 4th of March, unless Georgia sooner secedes. A resolution has been offered in the Georgia legislature that the representatives in congress from that state resist the counting of the electoral votes of those states which nullified the fugitive slave law. It is believed at Washington that the President will not interfere with the secessionists no matter what course they may take.—Stocks fell in New York on Monday from one to eight per cent., except state and United States. The banks of New York city have thrown out the bills of southern banks.

Union Items.—A meeting of Bell and Douglas parties has been held at Lexington denouncing disunion. Leslie Combs and others spoke. A large and enthusiastic union meeting was held at Henderson, Ky., on Saturday. Ex-Gov. Dixon presided. The New Orleans Picayune affirms that Louisiana will not lead nor follow in disunion.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 8.

He will Issue No Manifesto.—Mr. Lincoln is still continually visited by crowds of well-wishers; not only from his own party, but also from what was recently the democratic and Bell-Everett parties.

Although the city is well filled with visitors, no public celebration has yet been arranged, but one is determined upon as soon as complete official news shall arrive from all important quarters. Meanwhile, there is the greatest eagerness to ascertain in some manner the new President's intentions, as regards his own course and the character of his appointments. Mr. Lincoln, however, is the last man to gratify this curiosity until the proper time shall arrive. Not the slightest indication of his future movements is yielded to anybody.

There are many inquiries from abroad as to whether Mr. Lincoln will make any speech or write any letter defining his views but up to this he has certainly entertained no idea of writing or speaking upon the subject. He may, probably, in case of a popular demonstration, make a brief address, but it will be without preparation, and wholly informal. The only letters he writes are of a private nature, and there are plenty of these required.—New York Tribune.

A Tremendous Fast Horse.—Many years ago a solitary horseman might have been seen swiftly riding towards Toledo, Ohio. The sun had just set in the western horizon. 'Twas the close in short, of an election day, and that solitary horseman was courier from an important township in the country. All but the one we speak of had been heard from at Toledo, and the vote of this very township was needed to tell how the county had gone. At length the solitary horseman arrived in Toledo, and reined the foaming steed up before the Indiana House. A big crowd of whigs and democrats rushed for the news.

"Better time," said the solitary horseman, looking at his watch, "was never made by living hoss! Fifteen miles in thirty-two minutes! What d'ye think of that, gentlemen!" asked the horseman.

"Cuss the horse," yelled the excited crowd, "how has —— township gone?"

"Gentlemen," replied the solitary horseman, "I disremember. It went either whig or democratic, but I've been so taken up with the speed of this 'ere hoss that I forgot which; but gentlemen!" roared the excited horseman, rising in his saddle and waving his whip in the air, "you may just rest satisfied on one point; all creation can't beat this hoss!"

The Boston Courier, the Belleverett organ, has a hard hit at its old fogy friends on the morning of election. It said: "Voters! Look sharp. Rub your spectacles well before you look."

The Angel's Visit.

Where two chairs stood by the fireside,
And two plates were on the board,
When the summer's gifts were garnered,
Fruits for winter evenings stored,
Came a dainty little stranger,
From the spirit world a ranger;
Came, and by the cheerful fireside
Quick was placed for him a chair:
And the happy hostess pondered
On the little being fair,
And the happy host oft wondered
That so rare a guest was there.
Naught they questioned whence, or wherefore
He had wandered, but a prayer
Often breathed they, that the stranger
Who had called, would tarry there.
For their hearts were yearning o'er him,
With a love so deep, and strong,
That they wondered how—without him—
They had lived, and loved, so long.

Where three chairs stood by the fireside,
And three plates were on the board,
One of fairy-like proportions,
With the daintiest morsels stored,
Tarried still the little stranger,
From the spirit world a ranger:
Tarried yet a little longer,
And the bonds were growing stronger,
That detained beneath the skies,
Angel guest from Paradise.
And each day with deeper feeling
Fraught with hope, and pride, and joy,
Hidden founts of love revealing,
Gazed they fondly on the boy;
Gazed the happy host and hostess,
On that wanderer from the skies;
Fondly dreaming that by kindness,
They'd detain him, in their blindness
Seeing not the pearly pinions,
On those dimpled shoulders folded,
Heedless that for higher regions
The little airy form was molded,
And to those regions soon must rise;
Vainly thought that host and hostess,
In their home beneath the skies,
To retain him, little dreaming,
That the shining throng had missed him,
From his place in Paradise.

Still three chairs stand by the fireside,
And three plates are on the board,
But in vain the plates are laden,
And the fragrant tea is poured.
Tearful eyes are ever turning
To the little vacant chair,
Bleeding hearts are ever yearning
O'er the loved that is not there.
Hoarded now is every treasure,
That the loved, and lost held dear;
Spurned is every worldly pleasure,
Earth is lone, and dark, and drear,
To those hearts so fondly brooding
O'er the joys forever gone.
All the light, from heart and dwelling,
With the little cherub flown.
Mem'ry with her darkest mantle
Wraps their soul in midnight gloom,
Shutting out the cheerful present,
Pointing always to the tomb.
And they wander in the shadow
Of their grief, which, like a pall
Shuts out all the light of Heaven,
Presses to their lips the gall,
Gall, and wormwood, but no balsam
From that crushing cloud of grief
Gently falling—bringeth healing,
To the tortured soul relief,
And they wander in the darkness,
Where earth folded to her breast,
Little angel form of beauty,
In its last, long, quiet rest.
Long they linger, nor return they,
From that sacred spot, unblessed,
On a marble slab uprising,
Lo! a little cherub hand,
With a finger pointing upward,
Toward the far off, happy land,
Just the image of the finger,
That so oft to their glad eyes,
Pointed out the stars, that lighted
All the pathway to the skies,
And beneath it, read they written,
Tear drops trembling in their eyes
Vainly strive to hide its meaning—
"Gone, to dwell in Paradise." ATHENA.

Exodus of Free Negroes from South Carolina.—The Philadelphia Press contains a long account of the colored refugees in that city, who have fled from South Carolina in consequence of the recent legislative enactments against their race. The provisions of the new law were that a single man must become their guardian; they were to be entered in the assessments as his slaves, and must carry about them certain copper badge, whereupon they were numbered. If found without a trustee, they were to be sold at the block; if failing to procure badges of servitude, to undergo a fine of twenty dollars; and if at any time destitute of them, to be fined or imprisoned. Up to Nov. 1st, more than seven hundred and ninety persons departed from the port of Charleston alone. It took all the resources of some to reach N. Y. Of the number named, about one hundred and fifty made Philadelphia their destination, two thirds of whom are tradespeople. The men are carpenters, tailors, shoemakers and masons; the females, mantumakers, milliners, laundresses and nurses.

A handsome woman, almost white, says the Press, exhibited her "badge," or, as she facetiously termed it, her "putty goole watch." It was a diamond-shaped plate of copper, an inch square, bearing the inscription:

"Charleston.
1860.
Servant.
1243."

This delicate piece of jewelry was punctured with a hole, and suspended thereby from a string. She had given $2 for it. Her husband had a similar one, labelled "Porter," for which he gave $4. The man and woman had been one day behindhand in "taking out" these badges, and they were fined $40 for being dilatory.

Many of the refugees parted with their property at ruinous rates, and many have still some effects in Charleston. Many of these ebony Evangelines have left in their Southern Arcadia relatives and friends, for whose safety their fears are ceaseless. The mother of a yellow girl told us that her daughter had a "younger feller in de Souf whose safety 'peared to weigh like on her mind," and as she said this her son, a tall young man, with glossy locks, was observed to wear an anxious look, as if he, too, had lost somebody in Carolina. We were told that one of the rufugees had left an aged mother in Charleston. The old lady, on being solicited to come away with the family, replied that she had passed a lifetime in "de Souf, and, please God, she wanted te die dar; nobody wanted to make a slave of de weakly ole 'oman."

The troubles of these ebony people will not be appreciated by the white masses. Many of them are almost white. Several purchased their own freedom some years ago. One woman was directed to leave the state by her trustee, who was fearful that at his death certain unprincipled members of his family would attempt to coerce her into absolute slavery. The refugees took passage in the New York steamers, through white sponsors who testified to their freedom. Most of these unfortunates are destitute of employment.

The Western Reserve of Ohio.—This stronghold of freedom piled up a prodigious majority for Lincoln on Tuesday—reaching 26,357, a republican gain of 4,758 since the October election.

A Sensible Conclusion.—The Atlanta (Ga.) American, after certain calculations in which figures don't lie, concluded, "sixthly, all who are in favor of civil war, starvation, ruin, desolation, robbery, arson, murder and the utter destruction of the south, should go for disunion if Lincoln is elected."

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

New York, Nov. 12.

The steamship Kaugaroo has arrived.—Dates to 31st anticipated.

Milledgeville, Ga., Nov. 12.

The military state convention met to-day. The attendance was large, resolutions were passed favoring secession.

Gov. Brown made a strong resistance speech, declaring the right of secession and the duty of other states to sustain their rights. He declared if the federal troops attempted coercion, for every Georgian who fell in the conflict the heads of two federal soldiers should atone for the outrage on state sovereignty. There is nothing interesting from the legislature.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 12.

The senate bill to suspend the penalties of suspension of specie payment by the banks passed on the 2d reading in the house. The convention bill was read the 3d time and passed unanimously. Its title was changed to an act, and sent to the senate to be ratified to-morrow.

Mr. Frenholme's resolution that the joint committee on military of both houses, during the recess, prepare a plan for arming the state; that the joint committee on finance prepare a scheme to raise the necessary supplies, were adopted.

Mr. Coffin proposed that the president of the bank of the state be authorised to advertise till the 23d of Nov. for sealed proposals for a loan of $400,000. He was authorised by a friend to say that he would take $100,000 at 5 per cent premium—not considered. The bill to arm the state was recommitted. A resolution passed for managers to give notice of election. The resolution for the committee on military to inquire into the propriety of fortifying various exposed towns on the sea cost—lost.

The house met this evening and read the bank bill the 3d time; its title was changed to an act and it was sent to the senate for ratification.

Baltimore, Nov. 12.

Wm. George Brown, the reform mayor, was inaugurated to day. He closed his inaugural address with strong expressions of Union sentiments. He said it was the true policy of Maryland to adhere to the Union as long as she could do so with honor and safety. In conclusion he said no cause has yet arisen sufficient to justify the overthrow of the noblest and most beneficent government ever established by human wisdom, and which is consecrated and endeared to the hearts of all, not only by the abundant blessings of the present moment, but by the sacred memories of the past and the great hopes of the future.

A mass meeting of citizens to sustain the Union is much canvassed by our business men.

A southerner made his appearance on the streets this morning, with a blue cockade on his hat. He was regarded with a great curiosity, but evidently with but little favor.

Washington, Nov. 12.

At the trial of the rioters to day it transpired that there was a concerted plan to destroy the republican wigwam by the Breckinridge club before the election of Lincoln. The police are seriously implicated in the outrage. The States newspaper comes out as an independent journal, opposing disunion. A company of U. S. artillery left Fort Hamilton, Saturday for Fayetteville, N. C., to protect the U. S. arsenal at that place.

New York, Nov. 13.

Sunday night the Erie railroad safe at the Jersey City depot was robbed of $10,000 in bills and specie.

Washington, Nov. 12.

The Times correspondent.—Several leading Virginians here represented to be the purpose of their state to become the mediator between the sections when South Carolina shall have accomplished secession.—The basis will require that no one be elected President unless he receives a majority of both sections of the Union and that no law be passed except by a majority of the members representing both sections thus securing a majority of the whole people in each case. Hearing of Gov. Wise's movements in organizing minute men, Governor Letcher it is said, addressed him a note, hinting that he, Wise, was no longer Gov. of Virginia, but that another had succeeded him who would take care of the public interest of the state.

World correspondence.—Several Virginia congressmen are here, they represent the sentiment of Virginia as in favor of submitting to the election of Lincoln. Rumors gain credit that Attorney Gen. Black and Sec'y. Floyd have informed the President that they will resign if he upholds the federal laws in case of nullification by any state.

The Market.

New York, Nov. 13.

Flour market heavy and 5a10c lower—sales 10,000 bbls. 5,20a5,25 super western, 5,40a5,70 common to medium extra western. Wheat market heavy and 1a2c lower. 1,16a1,21 Chicago spring, 1,24a1,25 Milwaukee club, 1,25a1,26 amber Wisconsin, 1,33a1,24 winter red western.

Milwaukee, Nov. 13.

On receipt of New York market, wheat declined 1c, but closed firm at the decline. Sales at 82a84 for Nos. 2 and 1.

St. Joseph, Nov. 8.

The pony express, with dates to Oct. 27, reached here this noon. Through some error the news was not intercepted at Fort Kearney.

The steamer Uncle Sam is full three days overdue from Panama, with the passengers leaving New York on the 1st inst., which causes apprehensions that the rioters on the Isthmus may have damaged the railroad and otherwise stopped communication between Aspinwall and Panama.

Senator Baker of Oregon addressed an immense audience in San Francisco last evening. He avowed his intention to abide by the doctrine of non-intervention with slavery in the territories, not as a principle, but as a policy.

Two men were dreadfully lacerated at Cruso Valley, on the 25th, by the premature discharge of a cannon, while firing a salute in honor of the republican victories in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. One of them, named Gaylord Campton, will probably lose both his eyes.

The directors of the San Francisco and San Jose railroad have let the contract for completing the work within three years, for $2,000,000. The distance is about forty-five miles.

Recent intelligence from Oregon says that the accounts of the late massacre of emigrants by the Snake Indians were much exaggerated. Col. Wright has received positive information that all but eleven of the train had arrived at the settlements in safety, and strong hopes were entertained of the escape of the eleven that had become separated from the main body.

The first considerable rain of the season occurred in Oregon on Wednesday, October 17th.

The great Almaden quicksilver mine case is still pending in the United States circuit court.

If you respect yourself as much as you do others, you will be as careful to do nothing mean when alone as when in company.

Proclamation by the Mayor,

In regard to the Sale or Giving Away of Intoxicating Drinks on Sunday.

Whereas, it has been brought to my notice that many of the shops and saloons of this city are kept open on Sunday, and that spiritous, vinous and fermented liquors are sold therein on said day, in violation of the Revised Statutes of the state of Wisconsin, under which licenses are granted by the Common Council of this city:

Therefore, the attention of all persons dealing in spiritous, vinous or fermented liquors, in the city of Janesville, is hereby called to chapter 35 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Wisconsin, and also to the amendment of said excise law, entitled "An act to prohibit the selling of intoxicating drinks on Sunday or certain other days therein mentioned." Approved March 16th, 1859.

Also the requirements of the Common Council of this city in granting licences for selling or dealing in spiritous, vinous or fermented liquors.

Every person or persons violating any of the provisions of said law, as amended, or failing to comply with the requirements of the Common Council, will be prosecuted in conformity to said law.

Sheriff's Sale on Execution.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY.

Charles S Roe against Hiram Taylor and L F Patten.

BY virtue of an execution issued out of the circuit court in and for said county, and to me directed and delivered, I have levied upon and shall sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on

at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the circuit court room in city of Janesville, in said county, all those certain pieces, parcels and tracts of land situate, lying and being in the county of Rock and state of Wisconsin, and described as follows, viz: the southwest quarter of section twenty-seven (27), town three (3) north, of range twelve (12) east, the west third (⅓) and the undivided half (½) of the east third (⅓) of the southwest quarter of section thirty-five (35) in the town and range aforesaid; also the undivided three-fourths (¾) of lots No. two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5), and all of lot one (1) on the Janesville Water Power, together with the undivided three-fourths (¾) of the water now used to drive six (6) runs of stone in the mill now standing and being on the last mentioned lot, and are the same lands and premises described in a deed of conveyance from R. T. Lawton, sheriff of Rock county, to said L. F. Patten, bearing date the 1st of August, 1859, and recorded in the Register's office for Rock county, in book 46, page 103, June 11th, 1860.—Dated Oct. 18th, 1860.

Plff's Attorney. oc19d7w

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeab'e STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

THE UNITED STATES AND ITS PECULIARITIES.

CONTAINING a familiar explanation of the national traits, and social and domestic usages of its people, in 2 vols., 1st vol. 400 pages. 12 mo., price $1,—to appear as early as possible—by William B. West, Janesville, Wis.

Though favored by flattering testimonials from authors, publishers and the press, such is the present state of the book trade that an advance, to cover the expense of stereotype plates, is now required as the sine qua non of publication.

Under these circumstances the inhabitants of Janesville are respectfully called upon to enable their fellow citizen to submit his work, not only to the foreigners of this country, but to the people of the "United Kingdom," for their better understanding of American institutions and the advantages, privileges and greatness of this land of freedom.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Celebration at Edgerton.

The wide-awake republicans of Fulton had a wide-awake celebration at Edgerton last evening. Early in the evening a procession was formed in front of the drug store of Dr. Burdick, under the charge of Dr. B. as marshal and Lee Brown as assistant, and marched through the principal streets of the village. The procession was composed of the Milton wide-awakes, with a few from Janesville, the Edgerton horse company, comprising the young men of the village, under command of O. P. Fassett, and citizens. A prominent feature in this procession was a representation by ladies of the states which have given their electoral vote to Lincoln, each lady carrying a flag with the name of the state and the majority given by it. To these was appropriately added a flag for the town of Fulton, and the majority rolled up by the energetic republicans of that town. The procession was led by the Rock River band, assisted by some of the citizens of Edgerton.

Bonfires were kindled in several places, the materials for a very large one in front of Swift's hall having been contributed by republican farmers in the vicinity. Swift's hall and Dr. Burdick's drug store, the residences of Deacon Palmer and D. W. Kent were illuminated. The residence of Deacon Palmer, favorably situated at the head of a street, was brilliantly lighted, and equaled the display from any of the buildings in this city last Thursday evening.

A cannon procured from Milton was effectively served in the evening, and added its tones to the general demonstrations of rejoicing so proper to the occasion.

A well-made transparancy, enforcing the obvious truth "Fulton is Redeemed" was suspended in front of Swift's block.

After the display in the streets, a large crowd assembled in and about Swift's hall. This hall is a large and commodious room, and preparations had been made for seating over 500 persons. Every seat was filled, and all the standing room closely packed. There must have been nearly 700 persons in the hall, and very many remained outside who were unable to find room in it.

A temporary organization was made by appointing J. M. Burgess of this city chairman, when Deacon Palmer, as president of the Fulton club, relieved from his duties, assumed the place of permanent presiding officer. The Janesville glee club, under the lead of T. Hornick, in the absence of J. R. Bennett, interspersed the speaking with their best songs, which were received with rapturous applause. Messrs. L. P. Harvey, S. D. Hastings, S. J. M. Putnam, Alexander Graham, H. A. Patterson and A. C. Bates successively addressed the audience. Each had a telling point or a happy anecdote, and no one committed the blunder of speaking too long. If the republicans of Fulton could be made vain, they'll assuredly grow proud over the many well-merited compliments bestowed upon them for their hard-won and brilliant victory.

At the close of these exercises, a most bountiful supply of well-prepared food was passed to all present. In this particular, if this repast was an indication to the general liberality of the citizens of Edgerton, there need be no fears of want or empty stomachs in that flourishing locality.

A ball closed the proceedings of the evening. When we left the village, Swift's hall was filled with a crowd of happy dancers and equally well pleased spectators.

Under all the circumstances, we have witnessed no celebration more successful than this at Edgerton. Democrats as well as republicans entered into it with spirit to give it success. We noticed among those present, republicans from various towns in the county who attended to manifest their appreciation of the efforts which resulted in one of the most significant victories of the country now so gloriously closed. If the republicans of the town will consolidate their organization and continue their labors, Fulton will hereafter be counted among the most reliable of the republican towns of "old Rock."

FOUND.—A fur cuff. The owner can have it by calling at this office.

RAILROAD SHIPMENTS.—During October there were shipped from Janesville over the Chicago and Northwestern railway 45,300 bushels of wheat and 6,868 bushels of corn.

CASSELL'S FAMILY BIBLE continues to make its semi-monthly appearance with great regularity; we agree fully with the New York Independent which says: "From the specimens we have seen, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it the most desirable Illustrated Bible ever issued. It is emphatically a Bible for the people."

COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—This body met at 1 o'clock this afternoon. We shall publish a report daily of its proceedings.

At the organization of the board this afternoon, every member was present, except Mr. David Merrill of the town of Beloit.—H. G. Greenman, of Milton, was elected chairman of the board on the 4th formal ballot, receiving 14 votes and J. L. V. Thomas of Newark 12 votes.

POTATOES.—Mr. A. J. Luckey, of the town of Bradford, has left with us a sample of potatoes of the regular Lincoln variety. One cluster, all united by the meat and not by the stem, weighs 3¼ lbs., and a single one measures 19 inches in its longest circumference. Mr. Luckey sent 21 bushels of "the same sort" to a friend in Chicago. Evidently, potatoes don't grow small in Bradford.

BURMAH—ITS PEOPLE AND MISSIONS.—An address on this subject will be given at the Baptist church on Wednesday evening, by Mr. Vinton, a native of Burmah, who, after five years' study in this country, returns to his fatherland. He will sing in the Karen language. All are invited to come in.

MINNESOTA.—Lincoln's majority in this state will exceed 10,000.

BOLD THEFT.—The warehouse of J. S. Chapin of this city, was broken into and a quantity of wheat taken from it under circumstances of unusual boldness and daring. About 5 o'clock in the evening, the man in charge of the warehouse had occasion to accidentally visit it, and when he had tried his key to the lock he found the lock had been removed. Opening the door he found a man inside who immediately closed it on him, and called "help." Another person inside then came to the door and held it fast against the efforts to open it. The man who made this discovery, at once started for aid, and when he returned with such aid, both doors of the warehouse were open and the persons inside had fled. An investigation led to the discovery of a loss of about 50 bushels of wheat in bags, and but for the timely visit of the man in the employ of Mr. Chapin, the warehouse would probably have been "cleaned out" of all its contents.

THE NEBRASKA FRAUD.—Morton (dem.) was awarded the certificate as delegate to congress, on a reputed majority of fourteen. This majority is secured by a return of 122 votes in his favor in a district where there are not three voters. If Morton goes to Washington with such a certificate, he ought to be made to pay his own expenses.

In New Jersey the Douglasites cheated the fusionists by voting a straight Douglas ticket, thus electing three Douglasmen, but probably defeating the Breckinridge and Bell men, and giving four of the electors to the republicans.

One of the best results of the whole campaign was developed in the town of Newport, Kentucky, where Lincoln beat Breckinridge about two to one.

Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pike street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparalleled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

Celebration at Edgerton.

The wide-awake republicans of Fulton had a wide-awake celebration at Edgerton last evening. Early in the evening a procession was formed in front of the drug store of Dr. Burdick, under the charge of Dr. B. as marshal and Lee Brown as assistant, and marched through the principal streets of the village. The procession was composed of the Milton wide-awakes, with a few from Janesville, the Edgerton horse company, comprising the young men of the village, under command of O. P. Fassett, and citizens. A prominent feature in this procession was a representation by ladies of the states which have given their electoral vote to Lincoln, each lady carrying a flag with the name of the state and the majority given by it. To these was appropriately added a flag for the town of Fulton, and the majority rolled up by the energetic republicans of that town. The procession was led by the Rock River band, assisted by some of the citizens of Edgerton.

Bonfires were kindled in several places, the materials for a very large one in front of Swift's hall having been contributed by republican farmers in the vicinity. Swift's hall and Dr. Burdick's drug store, the residences of Deacon Palmer and D. W. Kent were illuminated. The residence of Deacon Palmer, favorably situated at the head of a street, was brilliantly lighted, and equaled the display from any of the buildings in this city last Thursday evening.

A cannon procured from Milton was effectively served in the evening, and added its tones to the general demonstrations of rejoicing so proper to the occasion.

A well-made transparency, enforcing the obvious truth "Fulton is Redeemed" was suspended in front of Swift's block.

After the display in the streets, a large crowd assembled in and about Swift's hall. This hall is a large and commodious room, and preparations had been made for seating over 500 persons. Every seat was filled, and all the standing room closely packed. There must have been nearly 700 persons in the hall, and very many remained outside who were unable to find room in it.

A temporary organization was made by appointing J. M. Burgess of this city chairman, when Deacon Palmer, as president of the Fulton club, relieved from his duties, assumed the place of permanent presiding officer. The Janesville glee club, under the lead of T. Hornick, in the absence of J. R. Bennett, interspersed the speaking with their best songs, which were received with rapturous applause. Messrs. L. P. Harvey, S. D. Hastings, S. J. M. Putnam, Alexander Graham, H. A. Patterson and A. C. Bates successively addressed the audience. Each had a telling point or a happy anecdote, and no one committed the blunder of speaking too long. If the republicans of Fulton could be made vain, they'll assuredly grow proud over the many well-merited compliments bestowed upon them for their hard-won and brilliant victory.

At the close of these exercises, a most bountiful supply of well prepared food was passed to all present. In this particular, if this repast was an indication to the general liberality of the citizens of Edgerton, there need be no fears of want or empty stomachs in that flourishing locality.

A ball closed the proceedings of the evening. When we left the village, Swift's hall was filled with a crowd of happy dancers and equally well pleased spectators.

Under all the circumstances, we have witnessed no celebration more successful than this at Edgerton. Democrats as well as republicans entered into it with spirit to give it success. We noticed among those present, republicans from various towns in the county who attended to manifest their appreciation of the efforts which resulted in one of the most significant victories of the contest now so gloriously closed. If the republicans of the town will consolidate their organization and continue their labors, Fulton will hereafter be counted among the most reliable of the republican towns of "old Rock."

FOUND.—A fur cuff. The owner can have it by calling at this office.

RAILROAD SHIPMENTS.—During October there were shipped from Janesville over the Chicago and Northwestern railway 45,300 bushels of wheat and 6,868 bushels of corn.

CASSELL'S FAMILY BIBLE continues to make its semi-monthly appearance with great regularity; we agree fully with the New York Independent which says: "From the specimens we have seen, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it the most desirable Illustrated Bible ever issued. It is emphatically a Bible for the people."

COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—This body met at 1 o'clock this afternoon. We shall publish a report daily of its proceedings.

At the organization of the board this afternoon, every member was present, except Mr. David Merrill of the town of Beloit.—H. G. Greenman, of Milton, was elected chairman of the board on the 4th formal ballot, receiving 14 votes and J. L. V. Thomas of Newark 12 votes.

POTATOES.—Mr. A. J. Luckey, of the town of Bradford, has left with us a sample of potatoes of the regular Lincoln variety. One cluster, all united by the meat and not by the stem, weighs 3½ lbs., and a single one measures 19 inches in its longest circumference. Mr. Luckey sent 3½ bushels of "the same sort," to a friend in Chicago. Evidently, potatoes don't grow small in Bradford.

BURMAH—ITS PEOPLE AND MISSIONS.—An address on this subject will be given at the Baptist church on Wednesday evening, by Mr. Vinton, a native of Burmah, who, after five years' study in this country, returns to his fatherland. He will sing in the Karen language. All are invited to come in.

MINNESOTA.—Lincoln's majority in this state will exceed 10,000.

BOLD THEFT.—The warehouse of J. S. Chapin of this city, was broken into and a quantity of wheat taken from it under circumstances of unusual boldness and daring. About 7 o'clock in the evening, the man in charge of the warehouse had occasion to accidentally visit it, and when he had tried his key to the lock he found the lock had been removed. Opening the door he found a man inside who immediately closed it on him, and called "help." Another person inside then came to the door and held it fast against the efforts to open it. The man who made this discovery, at once started for aid, and when he returned with such aid, both doors of the warehouse were open and the persons inside had fled. An investigation led to the discovery of a loss of about 50 bushels of wheat in bags, and but for the timely visit of the man in the employ of Mr. Chapin, the warehouse would probably have been "cleaned out" of all its contents.

THE NEBRASKA FRAUD.—Morton (dem.) was awarded the certificate as delegate to congress, on a reputed majority of fourteen. This majority is secured by a return of 122 votes in his favor in a district where there are not three voters! If Morton goes to Washington with such a certificate, he ought to be made to pay his own expenses.

In New Jersey the Douglasites cheated the fusionists by voting a straight Douglas ticket, thus electing three Douglas men, but probably defeating the Breckinridge and Bell men, and giving four of the electors to the republicans.

One of the best results of the whole campaign was developed in the town of Newport, Kentucky, where Lincoln beat Breckinridge about two to one.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

Dated Janesville, Oct. 18th, A D 1860.
S. L. JAMES, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Rock, oct18d3m State of Wisconsin.

CIRCUIT COURT, ROCK COUNTY.

John P Hoyt agst William A Barstow and Maria Barstow.

BY virtue and in pursuance of a judgment of the circuit court for Rock county rendered in the above entitled action on the 10th day of July, A D 1860, I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on

THE 1st DAY of DECEMBER, A D 1860,

at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the court room in the city of Janesville, in said county of Rock, all the following described premises or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy said judgment and costs, to wit: all that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the city of Janesville, in the county and state of Wisconsin, particularly described as follows, to wit—beginning at a point in the east line of River street in Smith & Bailey's addition to Janesville, eighty rods from the junction of said east line of River street with Ravine street, thence on the east or easterly line of said River street in a northwesterly direction to the north line of section thirty-six of the town of Janesville, thence at right angles to the said east or easterly line of River street to Rock river, thence along Rock river to a point to be fixed by drawing a line at right angles to the said east or easterly line of said River street to Rock river, thence to the place of beginning, all of said premises lying north of Ravine street. R. T. LAWTON,
K. P. & J., Plff's Attys. [au17d3m] Sheriff Rock Co.

Sheriff's Sale on Execution.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY.

Charles S Roe against Hiram Taylor and L F Patten.

BY virtue of an execution issued out of the circuit court in and for said county, and to me directed and delivered, I have levied upon and shall sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on

at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the circuit court room in city of Janesville, in said county, all those certain pieces, parcels and tracts of land situate, lying and being in the county of Rock and state of Wisconsin and described as follows, viz: the southwest quarter of section twenty-seven (27), town three (3) north, of range twelve (12) east, the west third (⅓) and the undivided half (½) of the east third (⅓) of the southwest quarter of section thirty-five (35) in the town and range aforesaid; also the undivided three-fourths (¾) of lots No. two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5), and all of lot one (1) on the Janesville Water Power, together with the undivided three-fourths (¾) of the water now used to drive six (6) runs of stone in the mill now standing and being on the last mentioned lot, and are the same lands and premises described in a deed of conveyance from R. T. Lawton, sheriff of Rock county, to said L. F. Patten, bearing date the 1st of August, 1859, and recorded in the Register's office for Rock county, in book 46, page 103, June 11th, 1860.—Dated Oct. 16th, 1860.
JOHN WINANS, R. T. LAWTON, Sheriff.
Plff's Attorney. oc19d7w

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS AND FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

The Foreigners Book of American Knowledge, or

THE UNITED STATES AND ITS PECULIARITIES.

CONTAINING a familiar explanation of the national traits, and social and domestic usages of its people, in 2 vols., 1st vol. 400 pages, 12 mo., price $1,—to appear as early as possible—by William B. West, Janesville, Wis.

Though favored by flattering testimonials from authors, publishers and the press, such is the present state of the book trade that an advance, to cover the expense of stereotype plates, is now required as the sine qua non of publication.

Under these circumstances the inhabitants of Janesville are respectfully called upon to enable their fellow citizen to submit his work, not only to the foreigners of this country, but to the people of the "United Kingdom," for their better understanding of American institutions and the advantages, privileges and greatness of this land of freedom.

Subscribers will be thankfully received by Mr. Dearborn, at Newell's bookstore (late Sutherland's,) Main street, Janesville, Wis. oct6dawtf

Dated Janesville, Oct. 18th, A D 1860.

S. L. JAMES, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Rock.

oct18d3m State of Wisconsin.

CIRCUIT COURT, ROCK COUNTY.

John P Hoyt agst William A Barstow and Maria Barstow.

BY virtue and in pursuance of a judgment of the circuit court for Rock county rendered in the above entitled action on the 10th day of July, A D 1860, I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on

THE 1st DAY of DECEMBER, A D 1860,

at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the court room in the city of Janesville, in said county of Rock, all the following described premises or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy said judgment and costs, to wit: all that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the city of Janesville, in the county and state of Wisconsin, particularly described as follows, to wit—beginning at a point in the east line of River street in Smith & Bailey's addition to Janesville, eighty rods from the junction of said east line of River street with Ravine street, thence on the east or easterly line of said River street in a northwesterly direction to the north line of section thirty-six of the town of Janesville, thence at right angles to the said east or easterly line of River street to Rock river, thence along Rock river to a point to be fixed by drawing a line at right angles to the said east or easterly line of said River street to Rock river, thence to the place of beginning, all of said premises lying north of Ravine street. R. T. LAWTON,

K. P. & J., Pliff's Attys. [au17d3m] Sheriff Rock Co.

Sheriff's Sale on Execution.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY.

Charles S Roe against Hiram Taylor and L F Patten.

BY virtue of an execution issued out of the circuit court in and for said county, and to me directed and delivered, I have levied upon and shall sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on

at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the circuit court room in city of Janesville, in said county, all those certain pieces, parcels and tracts of land situate, lying and being in the county of Rock and state of Wisconsin and described as follows, viz: the southwest quarter of section twenty-seven (27), town three (3) north, of range twelve (12) east, the west third (⅓) and the undivided half (½) of the east third (⅓) of the southwest quarter of section thirty-five (35) in the town and range aforesaid; also the undivided three-fourths (¾) of lots No. two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5), and all of lot one (1) on the Janesville Water Power, together with the undivided three-fourths (¾) of the water now used to drive six (6) runs of stone in the mill now standing and being on the last mentioned lot, and are the same lands and premises described in a deed of conveyance from R. T. Lawton, sheriff of Rock county, to said L. F. Patten, bearing date the 1st of August, 1859, and recorded in the Register's office for Rock county, in book 46, page 103, June 11th, 1860.—Dated Oct. 18th, 1860.

JOHN WINANS, R. T. LAWTON, Sheriff.
Pliff's Attorney. oc19d7w

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

W. F. & A. W. GREELEY, Proprietors, No. 26 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

THE UNITED STATES AND ITS PECULIARITIES.

CONTAINING a familiar explanation of the national traits, and social and domestic usages of its people, in 2 vols., 1st vol. 400 pages. 12 mo., price $1,—to appear as early as possible—by William B. West, Janesville, Wis.

Though favored by flattering testimonials from authors, publishers and the press, such is the present state of the book trade that an advance, to cover the expense of stereotype plates, is now required as the sine qua non of publication.

Under these circumstances the inhabitants of Janesville, are respectfully called upon to enable their fellow citizen to submit his work, not only to the foreigners of this country, but to the people of the "United Kingdom," for their better understanding of American institutions and the advantages, privileges and greatness of this land of freedom.

Subscribers will be thankfully received by Mr. Dearborn, at Newell's bookstore (late Sutherland's), Main street, Janesville, Wis. oct6dawtf
